NYSSA TEENAGERS TO VIE FOR TRIP TO ESTES PARK

Three teenagers of Nyssa Church of the Nazarene have fulfilled local requirements as delegates to the International Institute dated in July at Estes Park, Colo.

They are Dianne Wilson, daughter of the Don Wilsons; Cindy Price, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Price; and Terry Martin, son of the Robert Martins.

They will now be judged by the district council, and if selected will attend the session with 15 other teenagers selected from area churches.

One of the qualifications was to quote from memory, the 12th chapter of Romans, which the trio did during services last Sunday at the local church.

Nyssa FFA Youths Earn Second Place Honors in Contests

The Nyssa FFA parliamentary team and public speaker contestant attended the sectional competition held Feb. 19 in Baker. First place honors in public speaking went to the delegate from La Grande, while Nyssa's Jim Bishop received the second place award.

The local parliamentary team, comprised of Newell Cleaver, Jim Bishop, Pete Smit, Tim Phillips, Gary Moss and Alan Cleaver, also placed second. Receiving first place award and the chance to compete in the state contest was the team from Halfway.
