MR. and MRS. LAWRENCE W. HOBSON

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Muri Lancaster of Nyssa, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hobson of Gooding.

The double-ring rites were performed by the Rev. Warren McConnell in the presence of 200 guests. Soloist was Ed Simmerman, accompanied by Mrs. Henry Robinson.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a floor-length gown of white peau de soie. Her circular shoulder-length veil of nylon illusion was secured to a tiara of seed pearls, and she carried a bouquet of white roses.

Miss Ann Stringer of Nyssa and Mrs. Grace Eakin of Bellevue, Wash., were maid and matron of honor, respectively. They wore floor-length gowns of green velvet and carried bouquets fashioned from large white poinsettias.

Cathy Eakin, the bridegroom's niece, was flower girl. She was dressed in a white velvet frock and carried a basket filled with rose petals. Gary Lovre of Medford served as best man.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Lancaster wore a rose-colored jacket ensemble with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a dressmaker suit of cranberry hue, and each wore a corsage of white carnations.

A three-tier white cake, trimmed with white rosebuds and topped with a cluster of wedding bells, graced the refreshment table at a reception which followed the ceremony.

The new Mrs. Hobson was graduated from Nyssa high school and the College of Idaho at Caldwell. She is presently teaching at the Wilson school plant in that city. Her husband is a graduate of Willamette university and is instructing at Frahm junior high school in Gooding.

If the first part of your vehicle identification number is here, you might be a winner.

Here's how it works. Look at the first symbols (the prefix) on your vehicle identification slip. Then look at the symbols listed above. If you find yours on the list, you've taken the first step toward being a winner. Now go see your Buick dealer. He has a list of 72 winners posted in his showroom. If you see your entire vehicle identification number on the poster—the symbols plus the rest of the numbers—$2332 cash is yours. (If your prefix isn't listed in this ad, don't give up. Your numbers may have been posted during the past few weeks. And every week there are 72 new winners posted on the showroom wall. So watch for next week's list of new symbols in this newspaper.) No slogan to invent, no puzzles to solve. In fact, you don't even have to own a Buick to have a winning number. While you're in the showroom, get a good look at the Buick Special. The $2332.00* happens to be its price. *Manufacturer's suggested retail price for Special V-6, 2-dr. coupe. Price includes Federal Excise Tax and suggested dealer delivery and handling charge. Contest Rules. Residents of Kansas, Missouri and Nebraska may, if they prefer, send in a postcard to R. L. Polk and Co., P.O. Box 1347, Detroit, Michigan 48231 and receive the weekly list of winning numbers by mail for comparison with their own vehicle identification number. An official entry form will be included. Sweepstakes limited to persons over 21 living in the continental U.S. Not valid in Florida or states where prohibited by law.
