leen Froerer, 1611; Bernie Ableman, 1599; Earlene Jennings, 1598 and Bonnie Nichols, 1594.

Stella Morris, one of many shaky keggers just getting over the flu, rolled the low handicap series and will receive the hard-luck trophy.

Betty Jean Holcomb is also winner of a trophy for having had the high scratch game of 222 during the tourney, with Bernie Ableman winning an award for having the 622 high handicap series among participating keggers.

Other Winners Listed

Ailene Holmes, in addition to being tops in handicap all-events, also earned an award for her 1535 scratch all-events score. Other trophy winners are Karma Kesler, with the 257 high handicap game and Bonnie Nichols with the 559 high scratch series.

Winners of the sportsmanship trophy and the champion split-pickler's award will be revealed at the forthcoming association banquet.

Billie Wright, president of the city association, has asked the Journal to express her appreciation to tournament committees, with a special thank-you going to Bill Church, secretary of the Men's City Bowling organization, for securing the scorekeepers.

Miss Wright also expresses her thanks to Sonny Takami and Muir-Roberts company, Nyssa Sanitation service and Amalgamated Sugar company for their donation of gifts for the tourney.
