

Carol Forsman, Roderick C. Sweet United in Weiser Church Ceremony

MR. and MRS. RODERICK C. SWEET

Miss Carol Forsman and Roderick C. Sweet were united in marriage during a 3 o'clock afternoon ceremony performed Sunday, Feb. 13, 1966, at the Christian church in Weiser, Idaho.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Forsman of Weiser. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. George Sweet of Nyssa.

In the presence of 100 guests, the double-ring rites were performed by the Rev. Joe Wagnon. Clarence Forsman, the bride's brother, was soloist and was accompanied by Mrs. George Binning.

Mr. Forsman escorted his daughter to the altar, which was graced with basket arrangements of yellow chrysanthemums. She was attired in a floor-length gown of white chantilly lace, over taffeta. On the back of her skirt were tiers of lace, falling into a chapel train.

Her shoulder-length veil was held by a tiara trimmed with white flower petals and pearls. She carried a bouquet of white roses, encircled with carnations.

Betty Vaughan as maid of honor and the bride's sister, Faith Forsman, as bridesmaid, wore floor-length gowns of yellow taffeta, covered with white and gold lace. They wore yellow bows in their hair and carried baskets filled with daisies and mums.

Nysson Phil Kent served as best man, while ushers were Phil Sweet of Ontario and Phil Young of Halfway, Ore. Candlelighters were Kristy and Cynthia Kirk.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Forsman wore a suit of aqua colored brocade and a corsage of pink baby roses. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a frock of pink lace and a corsage of tiny white roses.

A three-tier wedding cake graced the refreshment table at a reception held in the church fellowship room following the ceremony, with women of the church in charge. Serving was done by the bride's aunts, Mmes. Robert Forsman, Richard Imbler and Lewis Sharp.

Among out-of-area guests were Mr. and Mrs. Otis Hickman of Pendleton and Miss Marie Borge of La Grande.

The new Mrs. Sweet was graduated from Weiser high school and studied at Treasure Valley Community college. Her husband is a graduate of Nyssa high school and also attended TVCC.

The bride was attired in a pink suit with matching accessories for her trip via West Coast Airlines to Klamath Falls, Ore., where the newlyweds are now residing.

Club Ladies Hear Mrs. Charles Chapin Discuss Rock Garden Construction

Rock garden construction was the program given by Mrs. Charles Chapin at the March 11 meeting of Owyhee Garden club held at the home of Mrs. Wilbur Holcomb in Nyssa.

Mrs. Chapin told the group that even old quarries can be converted into attractive gardens and said that the landscaping adds to values of homes.

She also stated that having a clear plan in mind before construction begins can prevent later mistakes and hard-to-do alterations. She told the women to begin always at the bottom and work up.

She explained that large rocks, marked with age, are more appropriate than many small, prettier ones. The program leader displayed diagrams of rock gardens and other informative materials.

Homemakers' Council Installs New Officers In Candlelight Rites

By Mabelle McKague

NU ACRES — Mmes. Sherman Keck, Alden Bryan and Mike McKague attended the recent County Homemakers' council meeting at the Bluebird cafe in Payette. A no-host luncheon was served to those in attendance, after which there was a talk and film on Civil Defense operations.

Regular business meeting was held with a candle-lighting ceremony for installation of two new officers including Mrs. O. M. a Betts, treasurer, and Mrs. Jerry Stroud, vice president.

Mrs. Effie Nielsen accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Nielsen to Baker last Sunday when they visited the latter's brother, Douglas Benton. Mrs. Nielsen reports the weather quite severe and a considerable amount of snow in the Baker area at that time.

Visit Area Relatives

Mr. and Mrs. Mike McKague spent March 7 in Boise where they were luncheon guests of his sister, Mrs. George Martin. The McKagues visited the following day with a nephew, Paul McKague, and spent the evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence McKague in Meridian.

Ralph Baxter left Sunday for the Dry Lake area to spend several days supervising a crew of men in picking rocks and clearing fields for spring planting.

Mrs. Bert Schmidt and daughters of Madras arrived Friday to spend several days at the home of her mother, Mrs. Ralph Baxter.

What this home needs is NATURAL GAS

Unwelcome cold shaves and cold showers are unnecessary if natural gas is available to you. Nothing heats water as satisfactorily as natural gas. If your home is on or near a gas main you should, by all means, have a gas-fired water heater. It's your assurance of instant and constant hot water. Because of its quicker recovery qualities, a space-saving, money-saving natural gas automatic water heater smaller than your present flameless heater will provide your home with a never-ending abundance of really HOT hot water—always at your fingertips. Conversions are simple and inexpensive. Remember, too, that natural gas home heating and natural gas water heating go hand in hand . . . one complements the other; both are dependable, efficient and economical. Let the Cascade man give you facts and figures, entirely without obligation.
