

THESE LADS ARE TERRY OFT (on left) and GARY MOSS, NHS students and members of the local FFA chapter. At the organization's state convention last week in Bend, they were both named for State Farmer degrees. Terry is a member of the 1966 graduating class and is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Eggert Oft of 429 North Eighth street, Nyssa. His FFA project consists of raising Hereford beef cattle and some row crops. Gary's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Rommell Moss who reside on route 2, Nyssa. He raises Yorkshire and Landrace swine, some Angus breeding cattle, hay and pasture grass. All of the Nyssa-Adrian area lads whose pictures appear on the pages of this issue of the Journal, are to be commended as only two percent of Oregon's total FFA membership is selected for State Farmer degrees. The Nyssa youths were accompanied to the Bend meeting by their adviser, Stanley Sisson.—Journal Photo.

Baseball Prospects Declared 'Good'

(From the Nyssa High Bulldog)
Prospects for a winning season look good for Nyssa baseball players. The team is fortunate in that it has a lot of experienced boys returning and a new determined coach, Hank Mendazona, who is going to use his ability in molding a successful team from the following lettermen.

John Moore, pitcher; Mike Kodama, pitcher and first base; Gary Mason, catcher pitcher and outfield; Swede Mason, first base; Gene Brown, centerfield; Gary Cleaver, catcher; and Brad Burningham, second base.

Other boys sure to add strength to the lineup are Mike Roberts, catcher and field; Brian Cleaver, second base; Gary Berg, short stop; Ralph Estrada, short stop and third base; Jim Anderson, first base; Ralph Leavitt, outfield; and Charles Parra, pitcher.

Idaho Power Representative Gives Recipes for 'Unexpected Company'

By Farmerette Club
NU ACRES—Regular meeting of the Farmerette club was held March 16 at the home of Mrs. Delbert Wilson, with Mrs. Bob Shaw Sr. and Mrs. Cecil Evans as co-hostesses. During the business session, reports were given on various activities and a list of names completed for donations of pies and salads for the St. Patrick's dinner last Thursday evening at community hall. Members were also asked to volunteer for helping with the dinner.

After the business meeting, Mrs. Leona Anderson of Idaho Power company gave a demonstration and talk on recipes for "Unexpected Company." This was followed by a film on frozen casseroles and foods.

The hostesses served lime sherbet and chocolate wafers with punch or coffee.

Frank Wilcott, who spent the winter months at the Ralph Baxter home helping to care for the stock while they were away, returned early last week to his home at Grasmere, Idaho.

Pinochle Party Held
A pinochle party was held Saturday evening at the community hall with five tables in play. Hostesses were Mmes. Gerald Russell and Jack Burton.

High score prize winners were Fern Gardner and Robert Shaw Jr. Low score awards went to Beulah Gilman and Les Gardner who also won the traveling prize.

There will be two more pinochle sessions and grand prizes will be awarded. A grand prize winner must have at least a 50 percent attendance record.

Next party will be Saturday evening, April 2, and the public is cordially invited.

Visitors From Elko
Mr. and Mrs. Theon Coburn and friends of Elko, Nev., were weekend visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Gardner. Mrs. Coburn is Gardner's step-sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Sheehy of Ontario were recent Wednesday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mike McKague.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Baxter spent March 15 in Boise where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Hart.
