

Ruby Anniversary Reception Given By Children of Nyssa Area Couple

MR. and MRS. ROMMELL MOSS... Area Residents Since 1937

An open house reception honoring Mr. and Mrs. Rommell Moss was given Sunday, Feb. 27, 1966, in the Oregon Trail hall, with traditional refreshments of cake and punch served to an estimated 105 relatives and friends.

Hosts and hostesses for the 40th wedding anniversary event were the honoree's children, Mrs. Vic (Roma) Uria of Homedale, Mrs. Bill (Jeanne) Stradley of Bend, Mrs. Marvin (Anita) Hill of Homedale, Mrs. Jim (Regina) Jamieson of Bend and Gary Moss of the home.

Rommell E. Moss and Marguerite McDonald were married in February 1926 at the home of her parents in Banner county, Neb. They resided there until 1936 when they went to Weiser and one year later moved to the Nyssa area.

Mr. Moss farmed and did carpentry work until approximately a year ago when he was employed as a custodian at the Nyssa school plant. Since June 1965 Mrs. Moss has worked as a clerk in the dry goods department of The Merc in Nyssa.
