

Evening Rites at LDS Stake Chapel Unite Carol Reece and Chuck Corak

MR. and MRS. CHARLES J. CORAK

—Portrait by Schoen

Miss Carol Ann Reece became the bride of Charles J. Corak during an 8 o'clock evening ceremony on Saturday, March 19, 1966, in the LDS chapel of the Nyssa stake.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Reece, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Corak, all of Nyssa.

The double-ring rites were performed by Bishop R. Frell Blair in the presence of 200 guests, with large chrysanthemums, pink roses and spider mums used as floral decorations. Vocal selections were presented by Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Hendricks, accompanied by Debby Hendricks.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a floor-length gown of chantilly lace over net and bridal satin, designed with three-tier skirt.

Her waist-length veil was secured to a tiara of rhinestones and seed pearls, and she carried a bouquet fashioned with white orchid, stephanotis, ribbon of deep cherry red and Paris pink.

Maid of honor was Jeri Robertson of Boise; with Christine Reece, the bride's sister; and Sandra Holmes, her cousin, attending as bridesmaids.

They wore floor-length gowns of Paris pink and deep cherry red bridal satin, and carried spider mum bouquets. Each also wore a crystal necklace, a gift from the bride.

Janet Reece, another sister, was flower girl; and with the exception of a shorter skirt-length, was dressed identical to other lady attendants.

Jim Mehan of Ontario served as best man, while ushers were the couple's brothers, Dan Reece and Orrin Corak. Scott Giles, the bride's young nephew, was ring-bearer.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Reece wore a mint-green frock of sheath design and bone accessories. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a gold-colored suit with brown accessories. Each wore a corsage of pink rosebuds.

Charles Mann of Parma was master of ceremonies during a reception held in the recreation hall following the ceremony. Program selections included a reading by Mrs. Emery Spangler, with Mark Moncur singing "A House With Love in It." The latter was accompanied by Mrs. John Marsh.

A four-tier white cake, trimmed with pink rosebuds and topped with miniature bride and groom, graced the refreshment table, together with pink and white floral decorations.

In charge of serving refreshments were the bride's aunts, Mrs. Gilbert Holmes of Nyssa and Mrs. Pauline Jennings of Portland.

Mrs. Robert Giles, the bride's sister, attended the gift table and was assisted by Mrs. Lyle Reece, Joyce Lankford; Sally, Susan and Jolene Holmes. Christi Hubbard of Boise registered the guests.

The newlyweds are both graduates of Nyssa high school. The bride attended Link's school of business in Boise and worked for three years at Pacific Finance offices in the Idaho capital city. Her husband studied for two years at Treasure Valley Community college and is now a junior at Eastern Oregon college in La Grande.

After a wedding trip along the Oregon coast, the newlyweds are now residing at 37 EOC Courts in La Grande.

Every mother wants to raise her family in a safe and friendly atmosphere

When the little hummingbird set up housekeeping in a Standard Oil refinery, she paid us a high compliment.

She didn't know that our Company had invested millions to remove smoke and vapors from the refinery atmosphere, but she found it highly compatible—and she's an expert judge of air. The refinery's human neighbors also benefit.

Clearing smoke and smog from the atmosphere of whole cities will be a more complex problem, but

Standard Oil works for this, too—through research, joint efforts with public authorities, the loan of top scientists to pollution control projects in your community's interest.

Whether it's protecting natural resources, scenic areas and wild life . . . guarding water resources against pollution . . . or preventing contamination of the air in our busy cities . . . Standard Oil is dedicated to conservation—an important part of our responsibility to you.

P.S. The baby hummingbirds, born at our El Segundo, California, refinery, were as pretty as their mother.
