

Rural Reporter Tells Condition Of Area Patients

By Mabelle McKague
 NU ACRES — Mrs. Alida Smit was taken by ambulance Saturday morning to Holy Rosary hospital in Ontario. At the time this column was written, she remained in critical condition.

Tony Mell is still confined to the Veterans' hospital in Boise and early this week he remained in serious condition. He has been transferred to a private room and it is hoped that the change will be of considerable benefit to him.

Miss Janice Evans returned to her home Sunday after being released from Malheur Memorial hospital. She is now convalescing at her home where her mother, Mrs. Lucy Evans, is caring for her.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Jones and children of Springfield, Ore., spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Jones.

Pinochle Prizes Awarded
 The final pinochle party of the season was held Saturday evening at the Nu Acres community hall with a potluck dinner preceding the card session.

High scorers for the evening were Jerry Stroud and Cora Stockfleth, with low score awards going to Mike McKague and Mrs. Rudy Nedhalek. Phyllis Shaw received the traveling prize. Top grand prizes for the season went to Arden and Phyllis Atkinson, with Jerry Stroud and Gnetty Piercy taking low scoring honors.

Ralph Baxter spent the week at his home and returned Monday to Dry Lake where he is supervising field work.

Visit Grandparents
 Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Heap, who are attending college in Pocatello, were weekend guests of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Baxter.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike McKague spent two days last week in Boise, Caldwell and Homedale. They visited with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Frye in Homedale and at the Roy McKague home in Caldwell.

Mrs. Effie Nielsen was a Sunday guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Elver Nielsen in Sunset Valley where she visited with her grandchildren and a great-grandchild from Seattle.

OT Grange Members Review Degree Work

Regular meeting of Oregon Trail Grange was held April 7 with Master Tom Jones presiding. The main order of business was balloting on election of state officers.

During the lecturer's hour, members participated in a review of work for the first degree. A similar review of second degree will be given at the next meeting, April 21. A skit will be presented by Mrs. Loyd Adams.

H. O. Hopkins' name was called for the attendance prize and he missed $3 by not being present. A dollar will be added for the next drawing.

Those having birthday anniversaries in March and who were fined one cent for each year of their lives were Iva Adams, Lucielle Runcorn, Ellen Jones, Astrid Stephen, Thelma Parr, Russell Gressley, Charles Chapin, Stanley Sisson and Cecil Garrison.

Twenty-five members were served refreshments by Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Herrman.

GRAVESIDE RITES HELD FOR DEWEY H. SMALL

Graveside services for Dewey H. Small were conducted Saturday morning, April 9, 1966, at the Nyssa cemetery. Interment was made in the Veterans' plot under direction of Lienkaemper chapel.

Mr. Small, an employee of the Stringer company, succumbed the previous Wednesday at Malheur Memorial hospital after suffering a heart attack on the evening of April 4 at Owyhee hotel.

He was born June 9, 1897, in Tennessee and is survived by a brother, Lloyd Small of Wenatchee, Wash.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES

Sunset Valley—Word was received early this week of the April 9 death of Claud Britton at Parkdale, Ore. The deceased formerly resided on the Raffington farm in this community and also in Apple Valley.

ter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Elver Nielsen in Sunset Valley where she visited with her grandchildren and a great-grandchild from Seattle.
