Louise Wernick Feted During April Friendship Meeting of OES Chapter

The annual friendship meeting of Golden Rule chapter 131, Order of Eastern Star, was held Monday evening, April 4, in the Masonic hall with 82 persons attending.

Louise Wernick, member of the home endowment committee of the Grand Chapter of Oregon, was honored during the session. Special decorations, planned by Patricia Marcum, were placed on the walls of the meeting room. In the west was a silver silhouette of the Masonic-Eastern Star home with emblems of the two organizations and a chain of ribbon attached to the structure.

Four arrangements of letters comprising the name "Louise" entwined with flowers were other wall decorations.

Lois and George Cartwright, worthy matron and patron, presided during the meeting. Among those escorted were Rachael Paulson, past grand matron, and James Wheelock, past grand patron of the Grand Chapter of Idaho. Grand representatives escorted were Mary Jarvis, Delaware in Oregon and Genevieve Anderson, Wyoming in Idaho.

Grand committee members were Dorothy Tyson, registration, and Gail Anderson, finance of Idaho, and Mrs. Wernick.

Worthy matrons of Oregon who were escorted included Rosanna Lang of Vale and Norma Vanderpool of Ontario. Worthy matrons from Idaho included Josephine Wilson, Payette; Ruby Rogers, Caldwell; Cora Keithly, Cambridge; Betty Wheelock of Nampa; and Nova Turbyfill, acting matron from Parma.

Worthy patrons present and escorted were Gail Anderson, Cambridge; Harold Peters, Caldwell; and Stanley Banks, acting patron from Parma.

Six officers of Golden Rule chapter 131 read a poem and sang "Louise" to Mrs. Wernick in observance of her special night. All present then joined in an old-fashioned sing-along.

Myrtle Alexander, Amelia Pratt, Eva Chadwick and Josephine Rigney were in charge of refreshments for the evening. Mrs. Wernick cut the specially decorated cake; Lois Williams and Dorothy Tyson served the beverage.
