MR. and MRS. TED KRAUSE

—Portrait by Schoen.

Miss Cynthia Jayne Yekel and Theodore E. Krause were united in marriage during a late afternoon ceremony on Tuesday, April 5, 1966, at the Assembly of God church in Caldwell.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Yekel of route 2, Parma. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Krause of Nyssa.

For the single-ring rites, performed by the Rev. E. S. Caldwell, the bride was attired in a two-piece afternoon dress of white lace. The couple's attendants were Pat Gould and Robert Caldwell.

The new Mrs. Krause was graduated from Parma high school with the class of 1965, and her husband was graduated the same year from Nyssa high school.

A wedding trip took them to the Los Angeles area, and the bride is now residing in Long Beach, Calif. The bridegroom is presently stationed at the Naval Training center, Great Lakes, Ill.

Miss Effie Laan, Dennis Martin Wed In Evening Rites

Miss Effie Laan became the bride of Dennis Martin during an 8 o'clock ceremony performed Thursday evening, April 14, 1966, in the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Martin on route 1, Homedale.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Klaas Laan of route 1, Nyssa, wore a peach-colored ensemble, white accessories and white orchid corsage.

Tall basket arrangements of carnations provided the setting for the single-ring rites performed by Justice of the Peace Helen Frye.

Attendants were Mary Laan, sister of the bride, and Ronnie Martin, the bridegroom's brother. In addition to members of the immediate families, among other guests was the bride's grandfather Piet Peetoom of Holland.

The new Mrs. Martin was graduated from Adrian high school in 1964, studied for one year at Oregon State university in Corvallis and is now attending the University of Idaho in Moscow.

Her husband is also a 1964 graduate of Adrian high and for two years has studied at U of I. The newlyweds are residing at 327 1/2 North Van Buren street in Moscow.

Initiation, Election Of Officers Planned By Eagles Auxiliary

Betty Wilson and Phyllis Young were honored in observance of their birthday anniversaries during the April 19 meeting of the Eagles auxiliary. Door prizes were won by Mildred Nesbitt and Ruth Collins. Betty Walters was not present to claim the attendance award.

Officer nominations for the 1966-67 year include Elaine Olsen, president; Elizabeth Peutz, vice president; Mildred Nesbitt, chaplain; Betty Wilson, treasurer; Phyllis Young, inside guard; Esther Reitenbaugh, outside guard; Fay McGinnis and Lena Tyler, three-year trustees.

Election of officers will be held during the next regular meeting on May 3, which will begin at 8:30 p.m. instead of the usual 8 o'clock hour.

It was announced that formal initiation will also be held at the May 3 session for Myrtle Farmer, Georgia Iest, Jean Hanson and Evelyn Wyatt.

Family night activities which were previously planned for Saturday, April 30, have been postponed indefinitely.

Grand Madam President Frances Vanis of Ohio is scheduled to make an official visit in Boise on May 5 and all Nyssa members are urged to attend.

Auxiliary members have asked the Journal to express their appreciation to all who contributed to make the Cancer fund charity ball a success. Door prize was won by Sylvan Talbot, and Elizabeth Peutz was winner of the "hearing aid fund" sweater.

An 8 o'clock evening ceremony performed Friday, March 18, 1966, in Nyssa Church of the Nazarene, united Miss Sharon Reece and William (Bill) Walker.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Lester Reece of route 2, Parma; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Walker of route 1, Payette.

In the presence of 250 guests, the double-ring rites were performed by the Rev. John Bullock before an altar graced with white stock and lavender pompon chrysanthemums. Mrs. Pheral Dodson was soloist and was accompanied by Mrs. Bullock.

Given in marriage by her parents, Miss Reece was attired in a gown of satin and white chantilly lace, fashioned with scalloped neck and hemlines. Her waist-length veil was secured to a tiara of pearls, and she carried a bouquet designed with Cattleya orchid and cascading ribbon streamers.

Gail Reece, dressed in a lavender street-length frock and carrying a bouquet containing white carnations, white net and aqua ribbon, attended as maid of honor.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Fred Harris and Miss Marilyn Clarkson. They wore aqua-colored street-length dresses and carried bouquets fashioned with white carnations, white net and lavender ribbon.

Dawna Reece, dressed in lavender, and Lisa Walston, wearing an aqua-colored frock, attended as flower girls.

Steve Reece served as best man; while ushers were Dick Sorenson, Stuart Laird, Terry Martin and Joe Seward.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Reece wore a mohair suit of aqua hue, white accessories and a white carnation, lavender ribbon corsage. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a pink dress with black patent accessories and corsage designed with white carnations, white net and aqua-colored ribbon.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church basement. Gracing the refreshment table was a three-tier cake frosted in aqua and lavender, trimmed with roses and topped with miniature bride and groom.

In charge of gifts were Ann Peterson, Delane Moore, Verna Jean Clarkson and Mrs. Ed New-
