

Pre-Schoolers and Mothers to Attend May 13 Sessions at Apple Valley

By Mrs. Waldo Smalley

APPLE VALLEY—All mothers with children who will enter school next fall are invited to attend Apple Valley school on May 13 from 9 a.m. to 12 noon and remain for lunch in the cafeteria.

Any mother who has not been contacted should inform school officials as soon as possible.

Dan Smith returned home last week after spending two weeks in the Veterans' hospital at Boise.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Fritts were Sunday afternoon visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bowman.

Sixth Graders Take Field Trip

The Apple Valley sixth grade class took a field trip on Friday afternoon to the Snake River Wildlife Management area. In the evening the students attended a lecture by Professor Vail at Northwest Nazarene college observatory in Nampa. The Rev. Wayne Wardwell, Mrs. Masa Kora and Arnie Finkbeiner accompanied the class.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Whitton of Weiser were Saturday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Correll.

Mr. and Mrs. William Poppe were April 28 afternoon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rathman at Ontario.

Marilyn Wilson, Marcia Hill, Masa Kora Jr. and David Sells were among music students participating in the regional band festival Saturday at Burley. Mrs. Thurman Hill was one of the chaperones.

Returns From Hospital

Mrs. L. R. Price returned home April 26 after 26 days in a Caldwell hospital. Her daughter, Mrs. Zielke, is helping care for her.

Mrs. Verda Nichols of Caldwell was a weekend guest of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Nichols and sons.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Boston returned Sunday from a 10-day trip to California. They visited Mr. and Mrs. Bud Bolton and sons at Huntington Beach and toured Disneyland with them. Leaving there, they stopped at Hamilton Air Force base near Novato to visit Capt. and Mrs. Gene Boston.

Fire Destroys Buildings

Early Tuesday morning, neighbors noticed a black cloud of smoke rising from Delbert Sullivan's buildings. Finding his sheds on fire and no one at home, it took a few minutes to locate water hose and faucets, call the Parma Fire department and locate the Sullivans.

Most of the sheds and their contents burned to the ground. Due to work of the neighbors and fire department, the house was saved, although some shingles were burned and household furniture was removed during the most dangerous stage.

Mr. and Mrs. Ora Newgen and Art Johnson were Monday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Correll.

On April 24 a family dinner was served in the L. R. Price residence honoring Mrs. Sherman Pearson of Sikeston, Mo., Mr. and Mrs. Hazel Naiton of Morrilton, Ark., Mr. and Mrs. Jack Zielke and family of Moses Lake. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Orland White and Lucille, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Price and family, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Price and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Price and family, all of Ontario; Mr. and Mrs. Doyn Price and family of Pendleton, Ore.

Area Youngster Suffers Injuries In Recent Mishap

By Farmerette Club

NU ACRES—Shelley Betts, 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Betts, was involved in an accident on Monday of last week at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Omar Betts. The child had been near the door with her grandmother when her uncle, Gene Betts, started to drive away from the house.

The youngster darted in front of the car and wasn't seen by anyone until after she was struck by the vehicle. The wheels of the car did not pass over her body as she had fallen between them.

Her injuries included bruises, a cut on her head and a concussion. She was confined to the emergency ward at Holy Rosary hospital until evening when she returned to the Betts residence.

Mrs. Gary Betts and two daughters are residing temporarily at the Omar Betts home until they move to Seattle where their husband and father is employed.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sarlund of Sumpter, Ore., were last Thursday visitors and overnight guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alden Bryan. Mr. and Mrs. Sarlund are uncle and aunt of Tony Mell Jr. and had been visiting at the Mell residence.

Tony Mell, who is still confined to the Veterans' hospital in Boise, is reported to be much improved and is able to go to the dining room for his meals now. It is not known when he will be able to return to his home in Nu Acres.

Mrs. Arvin Kersey and sons of Fruitland spent last Saturday at the home of her mother, Mrs. Effie Nielsen.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Walker of Parma, former residents of Nu Acres, visited Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mike McKague.

LIVESTOCK GROUP MEETS AT LESTER CLEAVER HOME

Fourth meeting of the Buena Vista Livestock club was held recently at the Lester Cleaver home. President Axel Stephen called the session to order, and flag pledges were led by Scott Goodell and Jeff Stephen.

When answering roll call, members of the 4-H club reported on starting their selected projects.

After discussing the question of raising money for a 4-H scholarship, the group voted that each member will pay 25 cents into the fund. They also decided to impose a one-cent fine on members getting out-of-order during the meetings.

Following adjournment by Don Bishop, refreshments were served by Karry Cleaver and Mildred Widmer.

Next club meeting will be May 20 at the Lester Cleaver home. Refreshments will be served by Christine Stephen and Dean Sappe.

their grandparents, the Howells. Mr. and Mrs. Charlie McCoy were Friday evening guests and their daughters returned home with them.
