Sunday Dinner Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Alan Boatright and family of Caldwell were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Veryl Harrison and family.

WHILE A JOURNAL PHOTOGRAPHER was visiting at the Adrian school plant last Thursday morning to snap pictures of top winners in the recent science fair, Supt. Glenn Ward pointed out this cute group of pre-schoolers heading for the cafeteria. When this photo was taken, they had just gotten their trays of food and were being assisted by their teacher, Miss Judy Shurtliff (inset on left) and teacher's aide, Mrs. Tony (Rosie) Martinez. They appeared to be hungry little "fellers," as it took several attempts to get them to look toward the camera instead of at their teacher who was holding a tray of sandwiches.

NYSSA MOTHERS ATTEND OSU CAMPUS ACTIVITIES

Mrs. Bill Wahlert and Mrs. Wilton Jackson spent last weekend in Corvallis where they attended Mothers' weekend activities on the OSU campus with their son and daughter, Billy Wahlert and Lynn Jackson. The latter is a sophomore student and during the past year has served as president of Hawley Hall, women's residence building. She was recently selected as residence adviser for next year.

Among activities attended by the Nyssa mothers was a dinner at which Governor Mark Hatfield was principal speaker. They also attended an interfraternity sing with various college groups competing. Alpha Chi Omega won first in the girls' division. Karla Bartlett, daughter of former Nyssans Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bartlett, was a member of this group. The Bartletts presently reside in Portland.

Other Nyssans attending the OSU activities included Mmes. Kody Kodama, Bud Wilson, DeWard Benedict, Eugene Cleaver, Paul House and Thelma Hammon.

were April 27 dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arlo Miller. The occasion was to celebrate the men's recent birthday anniversaries. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gage of Boise.

THIS IS VICKIE HAMILTON, a former Nyssan whose parents, the Bill Hamiltons, recently purchased the A and W Drive-In at Ontario and moved their family to the neighboring town. The 15-year-old freshman student has continued to bowl in Nyssa, and together with Kurt Marostica and Danny Wilson, is a member of Wilson's Janitorial team, known as the "Pinheads."

TVCC Tea-Style Show Honors Senior Girls

To honor all senior girls of Treasure Valley was the purpose of a style show and tea held at Treasure Valley Community College Sunday, April 24. Girls and their mothers were entertained with a wide variety of modeled fashions and several musical selections.

Miss TVCC, ReNae Miles, gave a short talk to the group. Mrs. Laurine Wrenn, dean of women at the college, served as the adviser for the event.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Glenn spent the past weekend in Utah where Mrs. Glenn attended Mothers' activities on Utah State university campus with their daughter, Sherrie. The Nyssans also visited her mother, Mrs. Mary Anderson at Brigham City.

As indicated by the white figures on her black bowling ball, the young kegger came within three pins of rolling a 600 scratch series (a score admired by keglers of all ages). And this young lady isn't through yet. Again on Saturday, April 30, just before this picture was taken at the Sugar Bowl, she rolled a 229 scratch game. —Journal Photo.

"Fuel for Thought"

—From BILL SCHIREMAN:

No matter how you drive, RPM Motor Oils make your engine perform better and last longer.

The way we drive has a lot to do with how much wear our engines get. Stop-and-go, long, hard driving can increase engine wear. Unfortunately, most of us can't change the way we drive. But we can protect our engines, by changing to RPM Motor Oil. "RPM" protects in all kinds of driving... stop-and-go, long hauls, heavy-duty. In fact, with "RPM" and proper oil changes, your engine can outlast the life of your truck, car, or other equipment. Try it. Call us soon about any of the complete "RPM" line.
