

Rev. Harold Kurtz Visits Parents; Conducts Services at Boise Churches

By Mrs. Wilson Witt
NEWELL HEIGHTS—The Rev. Harold Kurtz arrived from Portland May 11 at the Boise airport where he was met by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Kurtz. On Thursday the trio went to Jordan Valley and Three Forks. The latter is an historical site where in about 1863 was the crossing location of freight lines from Winnemucca and Silver City.

The Kurtz' report that a log cabin, built that year, is still standing. The men hiked to where they could view Antelope creek and the hot springs. They had planned to remain until Saturday but returned home Friday due to inclement weather and bad roads.

The Rev. Kurtz was in charge of two services Sunday morning at First Presbyterian church in Boise and that evening gave the sermon at Second Presbyterian church in the Idaho capital city.

Among those attending services Sunday morning at the First Presbyterian church were the M. L. Kurtz couple and Dudley Kurtz family. Later, they picnicked in a Boise park where they were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Hurst of the Lincoln Heights area and relatives from Parma, Caldwell and Boise.

Mr. and Mrs. Luit Stam were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Miller in Big Bend.

Homemakers Visit Beef-O-Rama Fete

(From the NHS Bulldog)
Homemaking Classes I and II attended the Treasure Valley Beef-O-Rama held in the Ontario gymnasium May 12 at 1:30 p.m.

Purpose of this field trip was to give the girls some new and different ideas on preparing various meat dishes. It was emphasized that the low-cost cuts of beef are just as nutritious as the more popular beef cuts.

Guests speakers on the program were Vivian Freeman, Larry Williams, Grace Phipps and Mrs. Vi Gouldin.

Following the demonstration, Mrs. Freeman, home economist for White Satin Sugar Company, gave a demonstration on how to prepare tantalizing desserts to complete the various beef dishes.

The Beef-O-Rama is sponsored each year by the Oregon Beef Council, Idaho Power Company, Malheur Cow Belles, Malheur Cattlemen, Frigidaire and Ontario Retail Merchants Bureau.

SUNDAY EVENING GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Murle Marcum were Sunday evening visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Shaw on Dead Ox flat.
