Rita Delores Howe, Robert Bowers Exchange Vows in Recent Ceremony

MR. and MRS. ROBERT C. BOWERS ... United in Catholic Rites —Harano Portrait

Miss Rita Delores Howe became the bride of Robert C. Bowers during a 12 o'clock noon ceremony performed Saturday, April 30, 1966, at Blessed Sacrament Catholic church in Ontario.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Ted Howe of Weiser, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde O. Bowers of Nyssa.

In the presence of 80 guests and before an altar decorated with pink and white chrysanthemums, the double-ring rites were performed by Father John Baumgartner.

The bride was given in marriage by her God-father, Francis Tiffany. Her father was in an accident on Wednesday, April 27, and suffered a broken leg.

Bride's Attire Described Miss Howe was attired in a floor-length gown of lace over taffeta, with fitted bodice and bouffant skirt fashioned with three tiers of lace. She carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley, pink and white carnations.

Attending as matron of honor was Barbara Ingram Espedal, attired in a pink dress, pink lace coat and carrying a bouquet of pink and white carnations. Don Bowers served as best man for his brother, while ushers were Jim Houston and Claire Bowers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Howe wore a light-blue two-piece frock. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a navy-blue jacket dress. And each wore a corsage of white carnations.

Reception Aides Named At a reception following the ceremony, the refreshment table was graced with a three-tier cake decorated with white bells and pink ribbon. Assisting with serving, guest registration and gifts were Janice Bowers, sister-in-law of the bridegroom; Carol Atkins, sister of the bride; Marjorie Chapin, Mary Jane Copple, Nancy Bowers, Holly Goodman, Darlene McLaughlin and Sue Satsumoto.

Among out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Burch of Huntington; Messrs. and Mmes. Joe Saczawa, Ralph Mulliner and Bud Houtman, all of Weiser; Mmes. Robert Ingram and George
