NHS Tracksters Place Third in A-2 Meet; Three Qualify for State Event

Other schools competing and the order in which they finished included Vale with 64 points; Heppner, 44; Wahtonka, 35; Sherman, 24; Grant Union, 10; Enterprise, 3.

Women Bowlers Plan Association Meeting Tonight at Brownie's

Annual meeting of the Nyssa Woman's Bowling association will be held at 8 o'clock tonight (Thursday) in the dining room at Brownie's cafe, it is announced by association officers.

Business for the session includes election of officers for the 1966-67 year and adoption of constitution and by-laws.

Women attending should take their 1965-66 WIBC membership cards as a door prize will be drawn from membership numbers and it is necessary to be present to win.

BARBIE BOWERS UNDERGOES SURGERY IN ONTARIO

Barbara Joan Bowers, five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Bowers, underwent kidney surgery Monday morning at Holy Rosary hospital in Ontario. Her parents report that Barbie is recovering satisfactorily and will be able to return home next Saturday.

Three NHS tracksters qualified for the state meet to be held May 27-28 in Corvallis. They are Steve Petrie, who broke his previous record of 52 feet, 6½ inches in the shot put competition when he pushed the ball 54 feet, 1½ inches. The junior trackster will also enter the contest in discus throw, qualifying for the event when he met requirements set by the state. Also entering the meet in Corvallis will be Darr Jensen in the pole vault event and John Moore in high jump competition.

KERBY FAMILY VACATIONS
Dr. K. E. Kerby is spending a week on the Bud Wilson ranch at Hells Canyon. Mrs. Kerby and the couple's son, Steve, who recently returned home after studying during the past school year at Boise college, will spend a part of the week at Wallowa lake. Dr. Kerby plans to join them there and the family will return home Sunday.
