

SUSAN SCHENK and GENE BROWN (seated on motorbike above) were voted Girl and Boy of the Month for April. Other candidates were Toni Fife, Teresa Elguizabal, Patty Urry, Jim Anderson, Gary Cleaver and Neal Bohannon. Susan has been active in various organizations, such as Pep Club, FHA, GAA, Thespians, chorus, band and was a member of the Basketball Homecoming court as a freshman. She served as activity chairman of her class for three years and this year was on the Student Council as ICRC. Susan is planning to study music or business at BYU next year.

Gene has been an active member of the Lettermen's Club, Catholic Youth Organization, band and has participated three years in basketball, track and baseball. He has played four years of football and was nominated to play halfback on this year's All-State team. He was elected to the office of Superintendent of Water and Sewer Department during Student Government Day. Gene plans to attend Eastern Washington State College or Treasure Valley Community College in Ontario where he plans to study liberal arts.

Students at Adrian Earn Scholarships

Adrian high school students held their annual award program Monday evening, May 23, in the gymnasium.

Receiving the PTA scholarship was Miss Bonnie Lewis with Miss Shirlene Teter named as alternate. Winners of the chemistry awards were Miss Tami Wynn and Barry Fujishin.

Keith Tallman was given the Letterman's Honorary award, which was presented by Dick Franks. Earning the outstanding GAA award was Louise Brewer.

Lora Jo Stoker received the Adrian award for music. Outstanding home economics award was presented to Mary Laan.

Earning pins for their achievements in typing I were Jane Timmerman and Lois Seuell. A typing II award went to Cecile Smith and a shorthand pin was presented to Dorothy Conklin.

Miss Lora Jo Stoker and Norman Nelson were given American Legion citizenship honors. Louise Campbell was presented the senior key and Miss Stoker was given the VFW "Voice of Democracy" award.

Other Honors Awarded
Annual staff awards were presented by Mrs. Agnes Dilley, adviser. Mrs. Ann Watts gave the awards to those who worked on the school paper.

Eight senior students earned scholarships according to their outstanding scholastic abilities. Mary Laan and Jerry Brewer were each given a $330 state scholarship to Eastern Oregon college.

Miss Judith Pratt, valedictorian, was given a tuition waiver of $225 to Treasure Valley Community college. Kathy Nelson received a $500 scholarship to the Mary Stone Beauty school in Seattle.

NHS Graduates Receive Scholarships

the Carl Raymond Gray Union Pacific agriculture scholarship. The Nyssa PTA Teacher Education scholarship was awarded to Leil Farmer. Meriko Atagi received the Ada Hawthorn scholarship which is partial tuition to TVCC given by Upsilon chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma.

Nancy Leavitt was awarded a partial tuition Teacher Education scholarship given by the Nyssa Education association. She plans to attend TVCC.

Dixie Coburn and Rene Soliz were given partial tuition scholarships to TVCC by the high school Mexican Alliance club. Lina Flake and Ralph Tidwell were awarded partial tuition scholarships to the school of their choice by the junior high All-American club.

Baseball Scholarship Given
Brad Burningham is recipient of a baseball scholarship to Ricks college in Rexburg. He will register and enter school in September.

Miss Kay Baber was given a full-tuition, equipment and fees award to Hollywood Beauty college and Claudia Matthews received a tuition scholarship to Lady Catherine Beauty college.

Many other NHS seniors have been given work-study grants which are based on financial need. Several scholarships usually come in during the summer so students still have a chance to receive tuition or partial tuition. Mrs. Brumbach concluded.

Work-study grants to TVCC, worth $700 each, were earned by Dick Franks, Sharon Fenn, Linda Scott and Dorothy Conklin.

All scholarship and work-study grants were given during commencement exercises.
