Area Girls Needed For Harvest Corps

Oregon State Employment Service reported recently that there is still need for girls to join Youth Harvest Corps groups at berry ranches in Willamette valley.

These girls live on the berry farms and are supervised by competent women leaders. The need is for girls from outside the Willamette area and from areas which do not offer harvest work at this time.

Interested applicants may contact the nearest Oregon State Employment office for further information.

CALIFORNIANS VISIT

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Fife and John De of Turlock, Calif., spent several days last week visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. DeVar Woodard of the Lincoln Heights community, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Fife and family of Nyssa.

The couple left May 25 to return to their home and were accompanied by his sister, Toni Fife, who plans to spend the summer months in the California city. Fife is manager of the Sprouse-Reitz store in Turlock and his sister will also be employed there.

VISITS FROM MONTANA

Mrs. Lois Lundy of Kalispell, Mont., arrived Saturday morning to spend the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Huffman. She returned home Monday evening.

Local Students Attend Museum Open House

Elvin Ballou and his eighth grade social studies students attended the May 7 open house event at the Owyhee County Historical Society Museum in Murphy.

The visitation climaxed a study of Oregon history for the students.

A special item on display at the museum is a map of the Oregon Trail route through Owyhee county, Idaho. Clothing worn by women during the Owyhee gold rush days and homemaking equipment used in that era were also featured.

KENT TOOMB SELECTED AS FESTIVAL ROYALTY

Kent Michael Toomb, 4½-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Toomb of Lebanon, was chosen as train bearer for recent coronation services when the queen was crowned for the 57th annual Strawberry Festival. As a royal subject, he will ride on the queen's float in the June 11 parade.

The Toombs are former Nyssans and Kent's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Mullins, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Toomb, reside here.
