

Sessions of Women's Organizations Planned During June in Area Homes

By Freda Astoreca

SUNSET VALLEY — Owyhee Missionary circle will meet at 2 o'clock Tuesday, June 14, in the home of Clara Corfield at Nyssa.

Worthwhile club members will meet June 23 for a morning coffee hour in the home of Betty Nielsen.

Mr. and Mrs. Duane Smith and family were June 2 evening dinner guests in the Gabe Astoreca home. Other guests were Walter Nelson and the Lloyd McArthur family.

Harold Pline of Melba is visiting his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Snyder. Weekend visitors in the Snyder home were Mr. and Mrs. Jim Baird and daughter of Las Vegas, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Baird.

Guests From Moses Lake

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Parrill and sons of Moses Lake, Wash., were Monday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Alexander.

Sunday evening visitors in the Wilbur Chapin home were Mr. and Mrs. Max Moore and Frankie of Nyssa.

Mr. and Mrs. Hud Robb of Nyssa visited Wednesday evening of last week in the Wayne Robb home. Other visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Elver Nielsen and James Langley.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Alexander and family were Sunday dinner guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Grotteit in Nyssa. On May 29 the Alexander family and Grotteit couple were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Fogleman at Nampa. They were celebrating Mrs. Grotteit's and Karen Fogleman's birthday anniversaries.

Skogan Family Honored

Messrs. and Mmes. Wayne Robb, Ken Lorensen, Elver Nielsen and Gabe Astoreca were among area families attending a Sunday farewell potluck dinner honoring the Rev. and Mrs. Arthur Skogan and family. The Skogans left for Portland Friday morning to visit for several weeks.

George Wilson was a Sunday dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ora Newgen. Mr. and Mrs. George Stockfleth visited Sunday afternoon in the Newgen home. Bob Moore and Mike were Monday evening dinner guests of the Newgen couple.

Mrs. Frone Stradley visited May 31 with the Ora Newgens. After living in Big Bend for 58 years she is moving to Fruitland where she will reside with her son, Walter.

Attend Rites in Wallowa

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Asumendi and children went to Wallowa on May 25 to attend commencement exercises for her sister, Freda Trump. The Asumendis went to Boise on May 29, visited Rose Hill cemetery and later were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lenon. The Astoreca family and Walter Nelson visited the cemetery on Monday and were dinner guests of the Lenons. Astoreca and Nelson visited May 31 with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Stephenson.

Friday afternoon visitors in the Gabe Astoreca home were Mrs. Billy Linville and girls, Mrs. Tom Wiley and children of Nyssa, who visited their grandfather, Walter Nelson. The Astorecas and Nelson visited Saturday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hicks in Fruitland and with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Tyner at Nyssa.

Visitors From Missouri

Walter Nelson of Willow Springs, Mo., father of Mrs. Gabe Astoreca; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McArthur of St. Louis, Mo.; Mrs. Astoreca's uncle and aunt, arrived June 2 at the Astoreca residence. Mr. and Mrs. McArthur left Friday morning to go to Redmond to visit a son, Charles McArthur and family. Nelson plans to visit several weeks with the Astoreca family before going to California to visit other relatives.

May 31 evening visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wood were Pastor and Mrs. Arthur Skogan.

Mr. and Mrs. Gabe Astoreca and girls were guests for a barbecue supper Wednesday evening of last week in the Wayne Robb home.

Mrs. Harley Wilson visited last Friday afternoon with Mrs. Chet Mills.

Guests in Wilson Home

Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson of Ogden visited May 29-30 in the Harley Wilson home. They left Memorial Day to return home and were accompanied by Lila Wilson, who plans to visit several weeks in Ogden. Other Sunday dinner guests of the Wilsons were Mr. and Mrs. Chet Mills.

Mrs. Ken Lorensen visited Friday evening with Gertrude King in Payette. Sunday visitors in the Lorensen home were the Rev. and Mrs. Roy Webb of Vale. The Rev. Webb conducted Sunday services at Owyhee Community church.

RETURN FROM UTAH

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cottle and Alan recently returned from Utah where Alan was attending school. The Cottles visited near Logan during the Memorial weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Cottle recently received word from their son, Kenneth, that he and his family had reached the Philippines safely. Dr. Cottle is the new senior dental officer at the San Miguel medical department.

VISITS FROM BOUNTIFUL

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Stringham and Laura of Bountiful, Utah, arrived Sunday evening to spend a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mel Beck and family.

Santa Claus In June?

SILLY
ISN'T IT
BUT...

Remember Those Promises
You Made to Yourself Back
In the Wintry Months of November and December?

- ★ Insulate the House
- ★ Reside the House
- ★ Paint the House
- ★ Add a Bedroom
- ★ Repair the Roof
- ★ Build a Patio
- ★ Install Storm Doors and Windows

YES, any of these or other improvements may have been a promise or promises you made to yourself when Santa was preparing for his annual visit.

BUT... Now that Summer is here, it's time that those promises were kept. Drop in TODAY and tell us your plans... We'll be glad to go over the details and give you an estimate WITHOUT ANY OBLIGATION!
