

Gail Flinders, Richard E. Johnson Wed in Idaho Falls Temple Ceremony

MR. and MRS. RICHARD E. JOHNSON
... Honored at June 3 Reception in Nyssa

A reception honoring newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Erik Johnson, was held June 3, 1966, in the Nyssa LDS stake cultural hall. The new Mrs. Johnson (nee Gail Flinders) is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Elwood Flinders of Nyssa. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Erik G. Johnson of Meridian, Idaho.

The couple was married Friday morning, May 27, in the Idaho Falls LDS temple by President Willard S. Wray. The double-ring rites were performed in the presence of 19 family members and friends.

The bride was attired in a gown of white delustered satin, designed and made by her mother. Hand applied, re-embroidered imported lace beaded with tiny seed pearls formed the neckline, trimmed the bodice front and extended down the front of the floor-length skirt.

Her three-tier veil of hand-rolled illusion was held by a crown of satin roses and petal-shaped lace points edged in seed pearls. She carried a cascading bouquet containing six green cymbidium orchids, white gladioli and ribbon.

Bride's Attendants Named
Attending as maids of honor were the Misses Karen Child of Provo and Pam Hill of Meridian. They wore identical gowns of avocado peau de soie and carried bouquets of white gladioli.

Attired in turquoise gowns of peau de soie were the Misses Calleen Johnson, Judy Johnson and Janalee Wilson as bridesmaids. Jill Saunders, wearing a frock of avocado peau de soie, was flower girl.

Serving as best man was Darrell Johnson, while ushers were Gerald Flinders, Marvin Wilson and Jack Hill.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Flinders wore a dress of aqua and blue floral design and the bridegroom's mother was attired in a beige ensemble. Each wore a white carnation corsage.

Master of ceremonies for the program was Lorin Saunders, brother-in-law of the bride, with prayer given by Patriarch Arvel L. Child. Mrs. Mark Hartley pre-
