Newell Heights — Mrs. Wilson Witt and her sister, Mrs. W. C. Van DeWater of Big Bend, returned June 14 from Sacramento, Calif. The women were accompanied home by their brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Milo Conable.

Greyhound bus line employees were on strike and the other line was considering a strike, so travel by bus was uncertain.

Mrs. Witt and Mrs. Van DeWater had been summoned to California by the death of a brother, Claire Conable, who resided at Lakeport. During the week they visited children of the deceased.

Club Travels All Over U.S.

After attending June 12 services at Wesley Methodist church in Sacramento, the group crossed the highway to the "Cross Roads" where they saw an antique car show. A group of car owners has organized a club and travel all over the United States.

Some of the vehicles are hauled, while others are driven a part of the way. It is reported that the autos are valued between $750 and several thousands of dollars.

A display card on each vehicle revealed the make of the car, price when new and the horsepower. One had brass pistons and another a copper gas tank behind the seat.

Tires for Cars Expensive

One owner stated that he had six coats of wax on his car and it shone like new. It is reported that a tire for one of these "old-timers" costs as much as four times the price for a later model car.

In order to qualify for the club, owners must have autos made between the years 1908 and 1920.

One of the vehicles featured a 1½-foot circle windshield on the driver's side and none on the passenger side.

Later the group viewed a style show with fashions from "grandma's" time to the present.
