A FATHER-SON COMBINATION is among many patrons hard at work planning the Roswell high school reunion picnic. In the center is Marvin Abbott, RHS class of 1939, and on the right is his father, Guernsey Abbott, a member of the 1916 graduating class. He and his classmates were the very first to graduate from Roswell high — and are this year celebrating their 50th anniversary. Also in this photo are three members of the class of 1914 who this year are celebrating their 25th anniversary. They are (from left) Mrs. Phil Lucas, Mrs. Lyle Andrew and Mrs. Mildred Smyser. This group of RHS former students stand in front of the school building where from 1916 to 1945 high school classes were held. It now houses active classrooms for students in grades 1 through 6 comprising an enrollment of 150, with Fred Hultz serving as principal. The reunion picnic will be at 1 p.m. Sunday, July 17, in the community park at Parma.
