Local LDS Reception Fetes Couple Married in Salt Lake City Temple

MR. and MRS. RALPH S. WEBER

Miss Bonnie Staples became the bride of Ralph S. Weber during an 8:30 o'clock evening ceremony performed Monday, June 13, 1966, in the LDS temple at Salt Lake City, Utah.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Rulon W. Staples of route 2, Nyssa; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Weber of route 1, Parma, Idaho.

At a reception, staged in the Nyssa LDS stake house, the bride was attired in a floor-length gown of empire design. Fabric roses held her bouffant veil, and she carried a bouquet of pink carnations, red and pink roses.

Attending the bride were Milly Staples as maid of honor; Sharon Smith, Colleen Staples and Clarinda Ashley as bridesmaids. They wore identical gowns of pale pink dotted Swiss, wrist-length gloves and each carried a single red rose.

Leonard Weber was best man, with Russell Phillips, George Anderson, Raymond and Charles Weber serving as ushers.

For her daughter's reception, Mrs. Staples was attired in a beige and white frock of floral design, and the bridegroom's mother wore a pink two-piece linen dress, edged in lace. Each wore a corsage fashioned from pink carnations and a red rose.

The refreshment table was graced with a three-tier cake, iced in white and decorated with roses in light and dark shades of pink.

Among out-of-area guests were Sharon Smith of Salt Lake City, Clarinda Ashley of Provo, Mr. and Mrs. D. Moore of Ogden, John W. Staples of Coalville, Utah.

The new Mrs. Weber was graduated as valedictorian of her class at Nyssa high school. She is also a graduate of Utah State university and held an office in Alpha Lambda Delta sorority. She taught for one year at Centerville junior high school.

Her husband was graduated from Brigham Young university in Provo and received his master's degree in business administration from the University of Utah.

For the couple's wedding trip to Denver, Colo., the bride chose a pale blue suit and white gloves. The newlyweds are now residing at 542 Gladstone street, No. 2, in Idaho Falls where the bridegroom is employed by the Atomic Energy commission.

Entertain Bridge Group Members of the Mr. and Mrs. Bridge club met Saturday evening at the Gordon Oxnam home for their regular card session. Prizes were won by Mrs. Tom Eldredge and Oxnam.

VISITORS FROM BAKER

C. Murray-J. Huett Rites Performed In Parma Church

The Parma Seventh-Day Adventist church was the scene of a June 26, 1966, wedding ceremony uniting Miss Carol Murray and Jackson Huett. Performing the rites was Elder Dale Ringering of Caldwell.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Murray of Nyssa, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Huett of Roswell, Idaho.

The bride was attired in a street-length gown of white satin and lace, and carried a white orchid, encircled with pink rosebuds.

Her attendants were LaDawn Haney of Nyssa and Beth Dinger, the bride's sister of Pendleton. They wore dresses of pink satin and lace, and carried pink rosebud bouquets.

Attending the bridegroom were his brother, Ronald Huett of Parma and David Escobar, a cousin from Anchorage, Alaska. Serving as ushers were Dale Huett and Fred Murray, the couple's brothers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Murray wore a dress of blue satin brocade and the bridegroom's mother was attired in a frock of light green fortel polyester.

At the close of the ceremony Fred Blough sang "The Wedding Prayer," with organ accompaniment by Mrs. Donald Belin of Caldwell. The young couple was then honored at a reception held in the Parma community house.

Following a wedding trip, the newlyweds are now at home in Pendleton.

Three New Members Join Rebekah Lodge

A regular meeting of Yellow Rose Rebekah lodge was held Tuesday evening, June 28, with Noble Grand Leona Reeves presiding.

During the session, initiation was held for Blanche Weeks, Virginia Rookstool and Emily Myers and each was presented with a Rebekah pin.

Attending the meeting were seven members from Beatrice lodge 82 in Ontario and two women from Acme lodge 26 in Meridian, as well as 18 members from the local group.

Refreshments were served by Angie Cook and Rose Toombs during a social hour at the close of the evening.
