

Pamela Huffman, Cecil Garrison Jr. Wed in Methodist Church Ceremony

MR. and MRS. CECIL T. GARRISON JR.

Miss Pamela Kay Huffman became the bride of Cecil T. Garrison Jr. during 7 o'clock evening wedding rites performed Thursday, June 30, 1966, by the Rev. Ralph A. Lawrence at Nyssa Methodist church.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Huffman,

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Garrison, all of Nyssa.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Huffman was attired in a white satin dress, lace overcoat and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Joyce Reed, wearing a two-piece pink dress, attended as maid of honor; with Ronald Cottrell serving as best man.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Huffman wore a two-piece blue dress, and the bridegroom's mother was attired in a frock of white with floral design. Each wore a corsage of pink roses.

July 24 Golden Event to Honor Carl Callahams

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Callaham of rural Nyssa are honoring their parents with a reception and open house in observance of their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday, July 24, 1966, from 2 to 5 p.m. at Parma community house.

Friends of the couple are cordially invited to attend.

Carl and Julia Callaham were married July 25, 1916, at North Platte, Neb., where they resided until 1936 when they moved to Idaho.

In 1938 they settled in the Parma-Wilder area and moved in 1958 to their present home at Owyhee Junction, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. Callaham have nine children.

OES Annual Meeting Planned at Historic Hall in Silver City

Mrs. Amy Adams, worthy matron of Silver Star chapter 83, Order of Eastern Star at Homedale, announces that a special meeting will be held at 8 p.m. Saturday, July 23, at the Masonic hall in Silver City. She urges all members to attend.

An annual meeting has been held in the historic Silver City hall for the past several years and attended by visitors from throughout Idaho and Eastern Oregon.

A potluck dinner for OES members, their families and friends will be served at 6:30 p.m. and those attending are asked to take own table service. Coffee, rolls and butter will be furnished.

Entertainment will follow the meeting and an outdoor breakfast is scheduled for Sunday morning. Those planning to remain overnight should take their own bedding.

Megan Jackson Honored On Birthday Anniversary

Megan Jackson celebrated her seventh birthday anniversary last Sunday with a "granny-dress" party in south park. The children were served by Megan's sisters, Caren and Marsha, and all went attired in granny dresses for the occasion.

VACATION AT YELLOWSTONE
