

THIS PHOTO WILL INTRODUCE the family of Preston Lee and Janet Rogers, Nyssa newcomers who on July 16 opened Rogers' Truck Stop cafe on North Main, former location of the Shaws. Standing behind the counter are (left to right) Mother Janet, Dad Preston Lee and 14-year-old Connie. Seated on the stools are Russell, 11, and Debbie, 13. The latter holds Preston Lee Rogers Jr., 11 months of age. The couple last owned and operated a cafe at Marysville, Calif., and just before coming to Nyssa the family resided in Florence, Ore., where the head of the household was in the plywood business. The Rogers' say they intended to locate somewhere in Canada, but while on vacation came through Nyssa. They liked the town, as well as the climate, and decided that this would be a good place to raise their family. The new cafe owners have asked the Journal to express their appreciation to all area residents for a successful beginning of their new business venture in Nyssa.—Journal Photo.
