IT'S ONLY A MINIATURE DISPLAY of "rocks" and "hounds" and will probably go unnoticed except by the small fry—but it seems to be entertainment for them, judging by the tiny fingerprints on the Journal window. The Thunderegg in the back of the 1977 model car, and the tiny stone being "set" by the bird dog were furnished by Maurice Corey. The sign the little man is holding is actually a Polaroid photo of the larger one seen in many Nyssa windows. It reads, "Welcome, Rockhounds! May We Help You?" —Journal Photo.

Do you earn too much to afford one?

For many people the Volkswagen would be an ideal car. Except for one thing.

It doesn't cost enough.

They're afraid nobody will realize they have any money, if it doesn't show in their car. In other words, they buy their car for other people. Not themselves.

Then there are those who earn enough to buy a much better car than the VW. But they don't. Because they can't find one.

For them the best car is one that's simply comfortable and economical. One they don't have to worry about. That doesn't make many stops for gas. And rarely needs repairs.

A car where the rare repairs don't cost a lot. A car where the car doesn't cost a lot.

They feel they can afford to save money with a Volkswagen.

Now next time you see somebody driving a VW don't feel sorry for him.

Who knows? Someday the bank might use his money to give you a new car loan.
