Work Smarter . . . Not Harder

By BERNICE STRAWN, Extension Home Management Specialist

DON'T SPOIL PICNIC FUN
 . . . by exposure to the two most common hazards—fire and food poisoning.

Avoid building a fire near tree trunks, logs or overhanging branches. Be sure leaves are cleared away down to the soil. If possible, build a fire on rocks. And do be careful that matches are put out.

Thoroughly drench a fire with water, then cover with soil or sand before you leave it.

Food poisoning during warm weather comes from careless handling of food. Plan to eat as soon as you arrive at the picnic ground. An ice chest is needed for perishable foods.

DOES YOUR NEW NON-STICK PAN STICK?

. . . If so, maybe you didn't season it first.

Manufacturers now say that all utensils—especially bake ware—should be oiled before use the first time. This conditions the non-stick surface.

All you do is wipe the inside of the pan with salad oil. Of course, angel food cake pans are an exception because you want the batter to cling to the sides during baking.

BALL POINT INK STAINS

. . . on plastic upholstery continues to be one of the frequent problems that our county extension offices are asked about.

Test an inconspicuous section of plastic first by sponging with nail polish remover. If the surface is not harmed, then try sponging the ink stains in a similar manner. There are several types of plastics and also different ball point pen inks.

The sooner stains are treated, the better the chance of removal. Rubbing alcohol will sometimes take out ink spots also.

FAIRS ARE ATTRACTING

. . . big crowds this month. There will be many interesting and educational exhibits, well worth your time.

At some booths, children may be invited to sign up for a free toy. This happened last year and families complained that a salesman came to their homes to deliver the toy and stayed two hours trying to sell his products.

The 1965 Oregon consumer law protects against fraud. However, if the salesman left the toy as promised, he is within the law. You, the consumer, are the only ones who can stop these annoyances. Avoid giving your name and address if you don't want to be bothered.

For information about protection against nuisance phone calls and illegal sales practices, ask your county extension agent for a free copy of the leaflet, "Don't Be Taken In."

TO REMOVE DARK STAINS

. . . from Teflon-coated pans, try this. Mix two tablespoons of baking soda and one-half cup of liquid bleach with one cup of water.

Boil this solution for 5 to 10 minutes in the stained pan. Next, wash the pan in warm suds, rinse and dry. Wipe with salad oil before you use it.

If pans have been badly stained over a long period of time, don't expect this treatment to completely remove all the dark spots.

THE GRASS STAIN SEASON

. . . is here. For best results, remove the stain before laundering garments. Work full-strength liquid laundry detergent into the spot. Or moisten the area and rub in granular detergent.

If the stain remains, use bleach for fabrics which can take it. For non-washable fabrics, sponge stain with rubbing alcohol, if you are sure it's safe for the dye. Test it first in an inconspicuous area.

What happened to my favorite?

As a very young boy, I recall a truly wonderful candy but, across the mists of time, I can't even remember its name. It was divine! There is nothing like it today. It tasted something like butter-scotch but—oh—so much better. It came in a can with a bright-colored label. Nothing—ever—was so good. Now it's gone forever.

I know that years cast a nostalgic spell around the things of our youth. But even rose-colored memory can't explain away the tantalizing taste of this long-forgotten candy. Why aren't these bright containers sitting on the shelves where they used to sit? What happened?

For that matter, what happened to Obak cigarettes, Force, Pearline, Sapolio, Peerless automobiles and a lot of other wonderful things that were bought by thousands who were young when I was young? Why can't we buy them today?

I'll tell you what happened. It's very simple. The people who made these fine products just didn't keep advertising at the job of telling the world about them.

The results? Many good things went out of our world because their life blood—advertising—dried up.

But, praise be, advertising is keeping many other good things ever available to us. Here's to advertising! Never sell it short. It pays to be advertised at.
