

Two Families Return From Vacations In Midwestern and Eastern States

By Mrs. Waldo Smalley
Mr. and Mrs. Herman Springen returned home Friday from a three-week trip to the eastern states. They traveled by train to Gillette, Wyo., where they visited his sister, Mrs. Sylvia Rivland and son; his two brothers, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Springen; a niece, Mr. and Mrs. Orland Gates and family.

They then went to Mousie, Ky., to visit another brother, Jess Springen and family, whom they had not seen for 35 years. Enroute home from Kentucky, they visited a sister, Mrs. Gertrude Regal and son at Grand Island, Neb., and stopped again at Gillette, Wyo. They report seeing lots of beautiful country and having a very wonderful trip, making the return journey by bus.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Moran and Susie returned Saturday evening from a two-week trip which took them into eight midwestern states. They visited relatives and friends of both Mr. and Mrs. Moran and also went sightseeing in Yellowstone park, the Black Hills and Custer battlefield in Montana.

They report driving for six different days in pouring rain and stated that rain storms were prevalent in places where they visited.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Allen of Missoula, Mont., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Nichols from Tuesday until Thursday of last week. The men had attended school together in Montana.

Residence Changes Noted

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brunel moved to Payette on Wednesday of last week. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Takatori and family are moving into the house vacated by the Brunels.

Mark Jeffery and Ann Smalley of Payette were Friday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Smalley.

Mrs. Dorothy Mason and two daughters and Nellie Leigh left last Sunday for the coast. Mrs. Leigh visited in Seattle and Mrs. Mason was guest of a sister in Tacoma. Enroute home via Richland, Mrs. Leigh visited a sister and Mrs. Mason and girls were guests of Dr. and Mrs. George Coburn at Kennewick, Wash. The foursome returned home on Friday.

HIATT BROTHERS REUNION HELD IN PARENTAL HOME

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Scott O. Hiatt on route 1, Nyssa, was the scene of a family reunion last week when the couple's eight sons were together for the first time in five years.

Those present included the families of SSG Willis G. Hiatt of Seattle; James J. of Phoenix; Leslie O. Eugene; Everett A. of Burns; Dewayne, Galen, Clayton and Danny, all of the home.

The reunion was not complete, in that the Hiatts' only daughter, Edna, who resides in Little Rock, Ark., was not able to join the family.

Also present at the reunion were six grandsons and one granddaughter. Other recent visitors at the Hiatt residence were Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Knowles of Oakridge and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Knowles of rural Nyssa.

ATTEND FAMILY REUNIONS

Mrs. Owen Froerer and three children, Mrs. S. P. Bybee and her father, H. E. Chamberlain, left last Friday for Utah. The Nyssans were accompanied by Kim, Shawn and Douglas Bybee, children of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bybee, who returned to their home at Brigham City, following a two-week visit in this area.

The group attended a Bybee family reunion at Ogden on Saturday and later in the day they attended a reunion of the Chamberlain family at Lagoon.
