

Spokane First Presbyterian Church Is Scene of Nelson-Moawad Wedding

MR. and MRS. JOHN STEVENS MOAWAD

Kathleen Frances Nelson and John Stevens Moawad were united in marriage during an 8 o'clock evening ceremony on Friday, Aug. 12, 1966, in the First Presbyterian church at Spokane.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Leonard W. Nelson of Spokane. The bridegroom is a son of Mrs. John Moawad, who with her mother, Mrs. Frances Feeney, returned for the wedding from Dharhan, Saudi Arabia.

Before an altar graced with basket arrangements of chrysanthemums and white gladioli, the rites were performed by Dr. David E. Dilworth of Whitworth college.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a gown of silk organza. A removable panel train flowed from a bow at the shoulder line.

Her veil of silk illusion was secured to a pearl-studded Dior bow and she carried a cascading bouquet of gardenias and stephanotis.

Attending the bride were Miss Marjorie M. Stolz of Seattle, as maid of honor; and Mrs. Thomas A. Farr of Spokane, as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Roger Wilson and Miss Lisa Brubaker of Spokane.

They were attired in floor-length gowns of chartreuse linen, enhanced with daisy appliques of Venice lace; carried baskets filled with white daisies and wore chains of daisies in their hair.

Bruce Grambo of Kelso, Wash., served as best man, while ushers were Roger B. Wilson and Malcolm Derr of Spokane and Harvey DuBois of Cheney, Wash.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Nelson chose a dress of pink lace with matching accessories. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a lace frock of cherry hue and his grandmother was dressed in blue. Each wore a white orchid corsage.

A reception was held in the Gothic room of the church following the ceremony. Assisting were Mrs. William M. Whitney of Pasadena, Calif., Mrs. Frances Stolz of Seattle, Mrs. Harvey DuBois of Cheney, Mrs. H. M. Loudereback of Spokane. Others assisting were Mmes. C. Patrick Codd, C. Richard Wendle, Harvey Morrison and the Misses Terri Toribara and Kristin Berghan.

Out-of-town guests included relatives and friends from California, Alaska, Montana, Pennsylvania, Idaho and various points in Washington.

After a wedding trip into Montana and Idaho, the newlyweds are now residing in Nyssa where the bridegroom is a member of the high school faculty. His new bride will teach at Fruitland, Idaho.

LOOKING FOR A HOUSE TO BUY?

... This is a big investment, so be sure it fits the family.

So often, we hear people make comments such as these after they move into a house. "Why didn't someone tell me to check the overhang of the south windows?" "We didn't think to ask if the soil had been treated for termite control."

There are lots of questions to ask and many things to think about. For a list of 93 important points to consider, ask your county agent for a free copy of our fact sheet, "What to Look for when Shopping for a House."

TROUBLED BY THE ODOR ... caused when a baby spits up his milk? Mothers tell us that a little baking soda on a damp cloth or a cloth dipped in a solution of baking soda will help to take away the odor.

Dirick Nedrys Plan Reception for Parents
