

TIM HOLLY, a member of the Adrian chapter of Future Farmers of America and a son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Holly, displays one of his awards won in the FFA division at this year's county fair. The plaque, given for the highest number of points earned by an FFA chapter member, contains the FFA insignia and the words, "Outstanding Competitor—Malheur County Fair, 1966—Mutual of Omaha." Tim was also presented a trophy by the Idaho Statesman newspapers as champion FFA dairy exhibitor.—Staff Photo.

Kersey Suffers Minor Injuries in Accident

By Mabelle McKague

NU ACRES—Arvin Kersey suffered minor injuries in a one-vehicle accident last week while taking a large load of dry cement to Brownlee dam. In rounding a corner, the truck tipped over against a rock wall. Kersey was only shaken up and sustained a bump on his forehead.

The truck was badly damaged and had to be towed back to Payette. Kersey returned that evening to his home at Fruitland. He is a son-in-law of Mrs. Effie Nielsen of this community.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Nielsen of Othello, Wash., arrived Saturday at the home of his mother, Mrs. Effie Nielsen. The couple came to attend a silver wedding celebration for his brother and sister-in-law, the Elver Niensens, and returned Sunday evening to their home.

Roy McKague, the Messrs. and Mmes. Dean Heideman and children of Caldwell, Ron McKague and family of Marsing and Earl Stokes of Kansas City, Mo., were recent Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mike McKague.

DORITYS HAVE GRANDSON

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Trender, nee Patricia Dority, became parents of a 6-pound, 7-ounce son, Patrick Joseph, on Aug. 16, 1966. The family resides on route 1, Box 448-A, Silverdale, Wash.

Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John Dority of Nyssa.

PLAN PORTLAND TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Sager planned to go to Portland this week to get their daughter, Bonnie, and take her to Spokane where she is enrolled at Whitworth college and will also train at Deaconess hospital. Miss Sager has spent the summer working as a nurses' aide at Willamette View Manor in the Rose city.

The Sager couple also plans to meet with officials of the Oregon Beekeepers association and others to plan the 1969 session of the American Beekeepers Federation which is tentatively scheduled in Portland.

RIGGS UNDERGOES SURGERY

Lewis Riggs returned Friday to his home from Malheur Memorial hospital where he underwent major surgery on Aug. 23. He is reported to be recovering satisfactorily.
