Apple Valley

By Mrs. Waldo Smalley

APPLE VALLEY—Mrs. Dwight Mason left Boise by plane early Friday morning for Denver where she met her husband and they returned home by car, stopping overnight at Idaho Falls to visit Mr. and Mrs. Howard Kaster. The Mason couple's daughters, Jill and Jan, stayed with the Rex Nichols family while their mother was away.

Mason attended a government meat inspection school at Omaha during the summer months and Monday morning began duties as a meat inspector.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Meek were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. William Poppe. Mr. and Mrs. Curt Thornton of Sandy, Ore., arrived Friday and are visiting this week in the Poppe residence.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Smalley visited Sunday in the Al Grimes home at Caldwell. Grimes suffered a paralyzing stroke Wednesday evening of last week and is in a Caldwell hospital.

THIS IS HOW the James Malloy home looked Friday morning following a Thursday evening wind storm. This large globe willow, which stood on the lawn, was toppled by the high winds, taking with it a portion of turf. Branches of the tree completely covered the front entrance to the Malloy residence but had been cleared to allow entry to the house when this picture was taken by a Journal photographer. The Malloys report that shingles on the dwelling were damaged and the window awning was broken. The couple resides on Columbia avenue, approximately one-quarter mile west of the Howard Bair residence where the wind caused extensive damage.
