

Adrian Presbyterian Church Scene Of Shields-Chiara August Wedding

—Portrait by Braun.

MR. and MRS. LOUIS LOYD CHIARA

Miss Marilyn Kay Shields became the bride of Louis Loyd Chiara during a 2 o'clock afternoon ceremony performed Saturday, Aug. 20, 1966, in the Presbyterian church at Adrian.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Harold Shields of the Big Bend area near Adrian, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Chiara of Battle Mountain, Nev.

Before an altar graced with white basket arrangements of pink gladioli and lighted candles, the double-ring rites were performed in the presence of 125 guests. Soloist was Ernie Lewis, accompanied by Mrs. Jim Phifer.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a gown of white slipper-satin and lace. She wore a diamond necklace, a gift from the bridegroom, and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Miss Connie Shields attended her sister as maid of honor, while bridesmaids were the Misses Rita Campbell and Marilyn Parker. They wore identical gowns of empire design, fashioned in two shades of pink.

Candlelighters were Miss Debra Stattner, cousin of the bride, and Miss Joe Fay Chiara, the bridegroom's sister. Train bearers were the bride's nephews, Howard and Monte Shields.

Another nephew, Brett Shields, was ring bearer, while flower girls were Andrea and Stacey Shields, the bride's nieces.

Attending as best man was Eddie King, with David Ramsdal and Dean Hoalst serving as ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Shields was attired in a gold and silver ensemble with beige accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a pink dress of silk and lace. Each wore a corsage of pink and white blossoms.

A reception was held in the church basement following the ceremony. Assisting with serving, guest registration and gifts were Mes. Jun Cates, Dwight and Darwin Noe; Miss Diana Stevenson, the bride's cousin; Mmes. Gerry and Gene Shields, her sisters-in-law.

Guests included the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Josephine Chiara; and his aunt, Mrs. Dulcie Chase, both of Battle Mountain; the bride's grandparents, Mrs. Lizzie Stevenson of Huntington, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Shields of Wilder.

The new Mrs. Chiara was graduated from Adrian high school, attended Treasure Valley Community college and is now employed at Beal Seed company in Ontario. Her husband was graduated from Battle Mountain high school and this fall will be a sophomore at TVCC in Ontario where the newlyweds will reside.

Labor Day weekend guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hanby were their daughter, Mrs. Gus (Louise) Flowers and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Brian (Louise) Flowers of Twin Falls. The women were accompanied by their mother-in-law, Mrs. Gus Flowers Sr. of Jerome.

Futura Secretaries Plan Guest Session For Advisory Board

Members of Futura chapter, National Secretaries association, began their fall activities during an August meeting held at Treasure Valley Community college. Co-hostesses were President Mrs. Eugene Grasty and Mrs. Jerry Bayley.

As a part of the evening's entertainment, the secretaries made and played back taped recordings of their vacation highlights.

Mrs. Russell Deshazer, new editor of "Futura Lines," distributed her first issue of the chapter bulletin, with Mrs. Bill Wilt, chairman of the Ways and Means committee, reporting on rummage and annual candy sales.

Program Chairman Mrs. John Cramer informed the group that plans are being made for a Thursday evening class to begin Oct. 6 and the refresher course for secretaries will be open to all stenographers in the area.

On Sept. 19, members of Futura chapter will sponsor a guest night dessert session. At that time, area businessmen and women, who have been selected to serve on the CPS advisory board, will be introduced.

TV Christian Women Hear Program Given By Nyssa Musicians

Treasure Valley Christian Business and Professional Women's council is one unit of a national women's organization. Many of these area groups hold monthly dinner sessions throughout the nation.
