AS OF THIS DATE, this is the largest tuber entered in the "big spud" contest which will give the winning grower a year's subscription to the Gate City Journal and a free airplane ride by Paul Hansen's flying service. This group of six tubers, forming one unit, is over 17 inches long (count the little black inch-marks on the printer's line gauge) and measures six inches in height. It came from the D. H. Christensen farm, was dug last Thursday and on Friday weighed 84¼ ounces on the contest's official scale at Farmers Feed and Seed company. Christensen, as well as others, is wondering how it got through the potato harvest-er without even a small cut—but that's just one of life's little mysteries.
