From This Corner...

By T. M. B.

This is the week of Nyssa's Seventh Annual Krazy Day event. It is a time for fun—a time for unusual bargains—a time for tops in merchandise selection and low prices.

It is also the time the Journal blankets the area with over 4,000 papers (normal circulation approximately 1950) which means starting a couple of weeks early and still working long, long hours to make the Thursday deadline.

It is the equivalent of about five normal editions... and we can't be too thankful to those merchants who got copy in early.

We've clipped several items that are recorded as factual but seem as RIDICULOUS as the garb you will see worn by the merchants and clerks of Nyssa stores Saturday...

PCA Farm and Ranch Loans Cost Less

When farmers and ranchers borrow money to finance capital improvements or provide funds for operating expenses, costs are lowest through PCA — Production Credit Association — sometimes only half of some other loans.

You pay interest only on the money you actually use, and only for the time you use it. Payments are applied first to principal, reducing the balance subject to interest.

Loans for operating funds are budgeted for all year, including planting, growing and harvesting.

Drop by our office and let us show you how our loan plans serve you best and cost you less. Also get your copy of "Budgeting for Profit", without cost or obligation.

Homecoming Activities Scheduled Sunday at Nyssa Christian Church

Charles Addleman, retired Christian church minister, will be guest speaker during the afternoon session of the Sunday, Sept. 25, "homecoming" program at Nyssa Christian church. He will speak on the topic, "Growing Up in Him."

For a number of years, the guest speaker was state secretary of Oregon Christian Missionary society, and in the fall of 1961 was ad-interim pastor of the local church. He and his wife now reside in Woodburn, Ore.

This day of homecoming at the Nyssa church will present an opportunity for both present and former members to reminisce and renew acquaintances, as well as receive spiritual instruction.

An offering will be taken for reduction of the church building loan. During the afternoon program the Northwest Christian college girls' trio will present a concert of sacred music. They will also sing during the 11 o'clock morning service.

A potluck dinner will be served at 1 p.m. in the church basement to families from throughout Treasure Valley, and the Rev. Wallace Prowell announces that all services will be open to the public.
