Verna Clarkson, Gordon Dewey Wed In August Rites at Nyssa Church

—Portrait by Schoen.

MR. and MRS. GORDON DEWEY

Miss Verna Jean Clarkson became the bride of Gordon Dewey in an 8 o'clock evening ceremony Saturday, Aug. 27, 1966, at Nyssa Church of the Nazarene. Before an altar setting of orchid and white gladioli, the double-ring rites were performed by the Rev. Jack Jamison in the presence of 200 guests.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Clarkson of Nyssa, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Dewey of Payette, Idaho.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, was attired in a gown of white crepe and lace, fashioned with empire waistline and chapel train. Her shoulder-length veil was held by a fabric rose and she carried an orchid bouquet.

Miss Marilyn Clarkson attended her sister as maid of honor and bridesmaids were the Misses Lois Anderson and Patricia Bissonnett, cousins of the bride. All wore identical gowns of orchid brocade and carried bouquets of spider mums.

Leland Dewey served as best man and ushers were George Walker and Frank Crowder.

Lighting the tapers were Tim Clarkson, brother of the bride, and Jannie Stoakes, her cousin. Ring bearers were Lyle Butler and Ravae Minton, with the latter's dress matching that of other lady attendants.

Soloist was Mrs. Dan Martin, with Miss Karen Saunders as accompanist.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Clarkson wore a pink suit and the bridegroom's mother was attired in a two-piece blue dress. Each wore a corsage of orchid-colored mums.

NYSSA COUPLE RETURNS FOLLOWING VACATION TRIP
Mr. and Mrs. George Knowles left July 20 on a vacation trip which took them to Missouri, Kansas and Colorado. They visited their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Orrid Rhoads, and the Bob Jasper family at Bolckow, Mo.

The Nyssans attended a reunion of the Cokerham family, relatives of Mrs. Knowles' mother in Brookfield, Mo., where Mrs. Knowles saw three uncles whom she had not seen since she was eight years old. Approximately 100 relatives were in attendance and the day was spent visiting and renewing acquaintances from the past.

The Rhoads then took her parents to Kismet, Kan., to visit Mrs. Knowles' brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Louthan. From there the Nyssans went to Campo, Colo., to visit her sisters, Mrs. Edna Miller, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Peters and other relatives.

The Rhoads couple traveled on to New Mexico and western Colorado and Mrs. Miller took the Knowles' to Los Animas, Colo., to visit another sister, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Owens.

The couple also spent some time with Knowles' brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Judson Knowles and Lloyd. They were met there by the Rhoads couple who was enroute to their home and on the following day the Nyssans boarded the train for home, arriving here on Aug. 15.
