

Birthday Events Highlight News At Buena Vista

By Helen Hoffman

BUENA VISTA—Mr. and Mrs. Donald Knowles and family of Oakridge visited recently with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Knowles and other relatives. Donald was honored with a birthday dinner in his parents' home.

Guests were his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Knowles; Henry and Dent Mitchell, Messrs. and Mmes. Jack Knowles and family, Scott Hiatt and family, Allen Jones, Frank Morris and grandson, and Cook Mitchell.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Cleaver entertained recently with dinner in honor of their daughter, Mrs. Taylor Phillips, on her birthday anniversary. Guests were the Phillips family, Mr. and Mrs. William Orr.

Trio Leaves for Corvallis

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Cleaver left Friday for Corvallis with their daughter, Harriet, who will enter OSU as a freshman. While there, they also visited a son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Gary Costley.

Willie Stephen spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Esther Stephen. He returned that evening to Boise where he is employed. Mrs. Stephen called Sunday morning at the Henry Carroll home and saw their infant grandson.

Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Piercy and family visited Sunday afternoon with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Piercy of Adrian.

Larry Stephen, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Stephen, left Friday for Ashland where he will attend Southern Oregon college.

Mrs. Tanner Entertains

Out-Our-Way club members met Sept. 14 at the home of Mrs. Guy Tanner. Six women answered roll call by giving "A Fact About the Jewish Religion." The program followed with a discussion of Jewish history. Unlabeled cans of food were exchanged among members and the money went into the club treasury. Refreshments were served by the hostess. Diana Bishop will host the next club meeting on Oct. 5, one week earlier than usual.

Mrs. Ray Griffiths called Friday afternoon on Mrs. James Stephen. Mr. and Mrs. Art Norland and family visited his sister, the Eugene Stephens, after attending the Friday night Nyssa-Vallivue football game.

Interviewed for Stewardess Post
Sylvia Cleaver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Cleaver, recently called from Idaho Falls to tell her parents she had been interviewed

Various Activities Discussed Friday By Teachers' Group

Upsilon chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma held its first dinner meeting of the year Friday evening, Sept. 16, at the East Side cafe with 42 members attending.

President Evelyn Harms conducted the business session during which a report was given of the state planning meeting held recently at the junior college in Bend. Local members attending the meeting were Evelyn Harms, Vale; Helen Freitag and Jackie Ashby of Ontario and Frances Bates, Nyssa.

President Harms announced that plans need to be started for the 1967-68 Delta Kappa Gamma state convention will be hosted by Upsilon chapter and held next spring in Ontario. The group was also told that the International convention will be held during 1970 at Portland.

Etta Wright of Ontario was initiated as a new member.

The women voted to place copies of "The Lamplighter," Vol. II, in the school libraries at Vale, Ontario, Nyssa, Adrian and Treasure Valley Community college. This book presents sketches on outstanding women educators of Oregon and is compiled by Delta Kappa Gamma members.

Mrs. Virginia Steffens of Nyssa gave a review of the book, "Beauty Behind Barbed Wire." The author, Allen H. Eaton, is affiliated with Oregon State university. The volume describes the creative works of art made from simple native materials by the Japanese people in relocation camps of America during World War II.

HOST SUNDAY DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Schraufnagel entertained with Sunday dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Charles Quinowski and family.

In Salt Lake City by American Airlines personnel and will know in 10 days whether or not she will be accepted by the firm as a stewardess.

Miss Glenda Hoffman accompanied Robert Smith and daughter, Karen, to Pendleton last week. Smith, an assessor for Umatilla county, attended an assessors' annual convention, while the girls attended the Pendleton Roundup.

Smith accompanied them to the Happy Canyon Pageant and Roundup dance Wednesday evening. At the dance, Glenda sat in with the Rod Esselstyn stage band, a well-known group of the Pendleton area. Glenda and Karen also toured the Pendleton Woolen Mills, Whitman college at Walla Walla and other local points of interest.

Reception at Home of Nyssa Parents Honors Couple United in LDS Temple

MR. and MRS. DENNIS LEAVITT

The Nyssa home of Mr. and Mrs. Orson D. Leavitt on Park avenue was the scene of a recent social event honoring their son, Dennis, and his new bride, the former Veda Lee Williams. The bride is a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Max B. Williams of Corvallis.

An arched trellis, covered with hibiscus, graced the Leavitt lawn which was lighted with Japanese electric lanterns. Also on the lawn were 10 tables, covered with lace cloths and centered with arrangements of purple asters.

The new Mrs. Leavitt was attired in a gown designed and made by her mother. It was fashioned from white crystalet and applied with Italian hand made lace, re-embroidered with seed pearls. The chapel train, secured at the waistline, was also edged with applied lace medallions and tiny pearls.

Her shoulder-length veil of French illusion was held by a tiara of seed pearls and her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls.

A bouquet of satin ribbon roses was carried by the bride at the local reception and was created by Mavis Carter. It contained 12 white roses, white satin leaves, net and tiny red roses, attached to trailing ribbon streamers. A separate corsage was secured to the center of the bouquet. Mrs. Carter also made satin-ribbon bouquets for each lady attendant.

On the program were vocal selections by Mark Moncur, Gary Clawson, Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Hansen. Organ and piano numbers were provided by the bridegroom's sisters, Nancy, Susan and Penny Lynn Leavitt.

A four-tier cake, baked and decorated by Juanita Oden, was served by Carrie Fife and Mavis Carter, with fruit frappe served from a crystal punch bowl by Shirleen Traveller.

Ushers were Rolf Usenko, Del Traveller and Mike Leavitt, with Mike Traveller serving as door man. Leah Trost, Tammy Traveller and Penny Leavitt were gift carriers, with Darlene Bale and Nancy Leavitt in charge of gift tables. Helen Trost and Susan Leavitt carried refreshments to approximately 100 friends during the evening.

Among guests were the bride's parents and their son, Vaughn. At a formal reception held Sept. 3 at the Williams home in Corvallis, the bridegroom's parents were guests.

The honorees were married Aug. 24, 1966, in the LDS temple at Salt Lake City.

The bride is a 1965 graduate of Oregon State university where she was affiliated with Kappa Delta sorority. She is a member of the high school faculty at Dallas, Ore.

Her husband is a senior, majoring in physics, and a member of Phi Beta Phi fraternity at OSU in Corvallis where the newlyweds have established their home.

Booth Takes County Fair Honors; Group Plans Yule Display

Members of ANK Garden club met recently at the home of Mrs. Gerrit Stam. Assisting hostess was Miss Gertrude Johnson of Parma.

Mrs. Carl Powers, chairman of the fair booth committee, reported that the club's display took first place honors at the recent Malheur county fair.

Another report was given by Mrs. L. A. Maulding, chairman of the Christmas show committee. She reported that the group has been busy formulating plans and that the display will be staged Dec. 9-10 in the social room at Nyssa Methodist church.

The ANK group voted to sponsor a horticultural forum in mid-March. Speakers will be from Oregon State university in Corvallis. Arrangements for the forums are being made by C. W. Mills of Portland and the sessions are under auspices of the state nurserymen's association.

During the recent session, club members answered roll call by giving interesting reports of trips made during the summer months. These included treks in every direction.

It was announced that the next meeting will be Oct. 11 at the home of Mrs. M. L. Judd.

Duplicate Club Slates Master Point Session

Winners for the Monday session of Nyssa Duplicate Bridge club have been reported by Mrs. Houston Wilson.

Tallying high scores were Ann Halberg and Myrtle Rasmussen, first; Father Fumo and Pete Hanigan, second; Mrs. Wilson and Doreen Fillmore, Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Maulding, tied for third and fourth places.

Mrs. Wilson announces that next week will be master point play.

MRS. STEFFENS ENTERTAINS

Mrs. Charles Steffens entertained with an open house tea on Wednesday evening, Sept. 14 in her home, using an autumn motif.

Fall flowers were used as decorations and 25 women were served punch and cookies by Miss Ann Cleaver, observing cadet teacher.

COLOR TOPIC DISCUSSED AT EXTENSION MEETING

Nineteen members of the Nyssa Home Extension unit met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Robert Kennedy. Refreshments were served by Mmes. Herman Towne and Louise Heldt.

Mrs. Guy Sparks presided during the business session at which the group decided to have a baby-sitter at subsequent meetings. "Color Cues the Home" was topic of the lesson given by Mrs. Dwight Mason.

PROGRESSIVE CARD PARTY PLANNED BY GUILD WOMEN

Members of St. Paul's Episcopal guild met Sept. 14 at the home of Mrs. David Sarazin. During the session, plans were made for a progressive card party to be held at 8 o'clock Thursday evening, Sept. 29.

The public is invited and dessert will be served at the church at the close of the evening.

SUNDAY DINNER GUESTS

Mrs. Charles Merritt and Grace Smith of Emmett, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Looney were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert

Guardian Council Members Installed During Recent Meeting of Bethel

International Order of Job's Daughters, Bethel 33, held a special meeting Wednesday evening, Sept. 14, in the Masonic hall with Honored Queen Sheila Huffman presiding.

Special order of business included installing new council members for Bethels 25 of Ontario and Nyssa's 33. Installing officer of the evening was Vera Olsen, and she was assisted by Louise Wernick as chaplain; Betty House, guide; and Myrtle Alexander, marshal.

Council Members Named

New council members for Bethel 33 include Thelma and Ray Huffman, guardian and associate guardian; Eileen Nelson, secretary; Earlene Jennings, treasurer; Virginia Timmerman, associate secretary; Pauline Mackey, epochs; Joy McPartland and Gloria Holly, sociability chairmen.

Eva Aspinwall, paraphernalia; Patricia Marcum, philanthropic chairman and scrapbook guardian; Ruth Kouns and Audrey Franklin, hospitality; Earl Jennings and Gerald Mackey, finance chairmen; and C. A. Wernick, fraternal relations.

Leona Miller was installed as guardian of Bethel 25.

During the Bethel business session, it was decided for members to meet Thursday evening at the hall and conduct a drive to sell

Entertain Bridge Group

Members of the Mr. and Mrs. Bridge club met Saturday evening at the Gordon Oxnam home. Guest players were Mr. and Mrs. Shorty Brandt. Prizes were won by Mrs. Brandt and Fred Guthrie.

tickets for the hospital style show.

It was also announced candy was expected to arrive day and the girls were to contact Pat Marcum for the day as soon as possible.

Plan Sept. 24 Hayride

Plans were discussed for a ride and members voted to it on Saturday night, Sept. 24, when they will meet at the ride to Ontario and go to the Hamilton home for refreshments and dancing.

The new guardians of Bethel were presented with pins and Mrs. Earl Jennings, guardian, presented a pole lamp as from the Bethel.

Jackie Franklin was selected Jobie of the meeting.

Water Heating Troubles?

Call Us for FREE INSPECTION and ADJUSTMENT

COAST-TO-COAST STORE
Victor R. Haburchak, Owner
Phone 372-3548
NYSSA . . . OREGON

FURNACES

ARE MORE EFFICIENT

With Proper Cleaning and Repairing . . .

ALSO CUTS DOWN ON YOUR HEATING COSTS!

CALL US NOW

For Prompt, Efficient Service

. . . on . . .

COAL, GAS or OIL UNITS

EDER PLUMBING AND HEATING

NYSSA . . . OREGON
Phone 372-2266 or 372-3377 (After Hours)

Stock up
FOR winter

DARK NIGHTS AHEAD—
FILL EVERY SOCKET

AT MOST STORES

IDAHO POWER

Electricity Does So MUCH...Costs So LITTLE

Home Dairies

Wishes to welcome the new customers that we acquired when we purchased Clover Lawn Dairy of Nyssa from Don and Margaret Engstrom.

We will continue with the fine service and quality products with which the regular customers of Home Dairies of Oregon have been accustomed in the past.

Also, we wish to thank these loyal customers of the past for helping us grow and to make this progress possible.

HOME DAIRIES OF OREGON, Inc.

65 S.W. 5th Avenue

Ontario, Oregon

Phone 889-6715

Save $1.00

COMBINATION SPECIAL

SEWING MACHINE TUNE-UP

"We Service All Makes"

INCLUDES:

- De-Lint, Oil Sewing Mechanism.
- Balance Thread Tensions.
- 4-Oz. Can of Singer Oil.
- One Package Singer Needles.
- Two Bobbins.
- Inspect Wiring, Motor, Bearings.

— MAIL THIS COUPON —
OR PHONE 889-6167

Your Name
Address
City
Driving
Directions

Sewing Machine:
Make

Age

Regular Price

$475

$3⁷⁵

"We Service All Makes"

the SINGER company

369 South Oregon St.

ONTARIO, OREGON

Phone 889-6167

Save $1.00

"Right Across From the Pix Theater"

Save $1.00