Jolene Russell and Terry Thompson Wed in Early-September Ceremony

MR. and MRS. TERRY THOMPSON

During an 8 o'clock evening ceremony on Friday, Sept. 9, 1964, in Nyssa Methodist church, Miss Jolene Russell became the bride of Terry Thompson.

The newlyweds are son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thompson of Nyssa, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Russell of Nyssa and Los Angeles, Calif.

Basket arrangements of white chrysanthemums and candelabra, containing 27 tapers, provided an altar setting for the double-ring rites performed by the Rev. Ralph A. Lawrence in the presence of 150 guests.

Violin music was furnished by Mrs. Herbert Fisher, accompanied by Mrs. Dwight Wyckoff.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, was attired in a floor-length gown of linen-weave silk, trimmed with Boroque lace and fashioned with matching chapel train.

Her veil of silk illusion was secured to a lace bow and she carried a bouquet of gardenias and white rosebuds.

Lani Long of Los Angeles attended as maid of honor, while bridesmaids were Diana Doan, the bride's cousin of Los Angeles, and Joan Hewett of Nyssa.

They were dressed in blue French crepe gowns of empire design and carried bouquets of white daisies.

Stan Thompson of Pendleton served as best man for his brother, while ushers were Pat Dority and Dub Jones.

For her daughter's wedding and reception, Mrs. Russell wore a lime-green crepe suit-dress, and the bridegroom's mother was attired in a pale-green ensemble of Italian knit. Each wore a white orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church social room. In charge of serving were Mmes. Ray Russell and Jim Beem, the Misses Ann Douglass and Kathy Tuning.

Among out-of-area guests were Mrs. J. B. Doan, the bride's grandmother; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Doan, her uncle and aunt; the Misses Diana Doan, Lani Long and Ann Douglass. All are residents of Los Angeles.

The new Mrs. Thompson was graduated in 1964 from Lutheran high school in Los Angeles and studied for one year at Treasure Valley Community college in Ontario.

Her husband is a 1963 graduate of Nyssa high school, spent two years in the U.S. Navy and is a member of the Nyssa city police force.

After a wedding trip to Los Angeles, the newlyweds are now residing at 509 North Third street in Nyssa.
