

Bend Extension Hears Lesson Effects of Color
 "Cues the Home" was the theme of the lesson presented when Big Bend Extension members met at the home of Mrs. John Samer. Mrs. Samer and Mrs. Guy Jones presented the lesson explaining how color affects personalities and how to change the temperature of a room.

Dore Roberts and Mrs. Mantel will present the lesson for the October session when members meet at the Bill home.

A session was held regarding wood refinishing and problems.

Officers are Mrs. W. V. ... chairman; Mrs. Verl B. ... secretary-treasurer.

Samba Session
 From Eldredge entertained afternoon for members of Samba club. Guest players Mrs. S. C. McConnell and Harry Miner, with prizes given by Mrs. Shorty Brandt and McConnell.

When Should Farmer

Rancher

BORROW MONEY?

When it will enable him to machinery and equipment which increases production and lowers costs, or to funds for paying operating expenses.

PCA loans do all this at total cost. Capital improvement loans give you up to seven years to pay. Loans for operating capital are budgeted for the entire year. You use money as needed, but pay interest only on the money you use.

Without obligation, get our booklet, "Budgeting for PCA loans," and let us tell you about PCA loans.

BAKER PRODUCTION CREDIT ASSOCIATION
 210 S.W. Second Street
 Ontario, Oregon
 Telephone 889-6471

Parents Host Late-August Reception Following Episcopal Church Wedding

MR. and MRS. THOMAS J. FLASCHNER

Miss Mary K. Olsen became the bride of Thomas John Flaschner in a 12:30 o'clock afternoon ceremony performed Saturday, Aug. 27, 1966, in St. Matthew's Episcopal church at Ontario.

Parents of the newlyweds are Dr. and Mrs. John W. Olsen of Nyssa, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Flaschner of Portland. Amid a setting of pink gladioli, the double-ring rites were performed by the Rev. Armand Larive in the presence of 200 guests, with music provided by Mrs. Tip Powers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a floor-length gown of white wedding satin. The upper portion of the bodice and sleeves was covered with chantilly lace and pearls. A detachable train was secured to the waistline with three large satin roses.

Her fingertip veil was held by a tiara of petal design, trimmed with pearls; and she carried a bouquet of gardenias.

Patricia Kehl, an Oregon State university friend, was maid of honor, while Trudy Olsen attended her sister as bridesmaid.

Each wore a floor-length gown, fashioned with avocado bodice, matching coat, veil and headpiece. Their skirts were of candlelight hue and they carried large nosegays of pink gladioli.

Serving as best man was Rick Gustavson, with Frank Dausz as usher. Both reside in Portland.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Olsen wore a dress of robin-egg blue silk, matching rosebud hat with veil and a corsage of pink gladioli. The bridegroom's mother was ill and unable to attend.

Reception Held in Olsen Home

A reception followed the ceremony and was held in the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. Charles Newbill, aunt of the bride, was in charge of gifts, with Miss Carolyn Garrison registering the guests.

Assisting with serving were Dr. and Mrs. William Gallagher, Mrs. Rollo Kent, the Misses Karen Kent, Mary Danford and Jerri Ableman.

Among out-of-area guests were the bride's godparents, Dr. and Mrs. Gallagher, Bill Jr., Debbie, Kerry and David of Portland; her great-uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Littler of College Place, Wash.

Others included the bride's cousin, Miss Carolyn Garrison of Vernal, Utah; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Littler and Mrs. Orville Carlson of Troy, Idaho; Mrs. G. P. Larson and Susan of Boise; Mr. and Mrs. Matthew O'Dell of Huntington, Ore.; and the bridegroom's father of Portland.

For her travel costume to McCall, Idaho, the bride selected a three-piece knit suit of eggshell hue with blue, pink and green accents.

The new Mrs. Flaschner studied at Oregon State university in Corvallis where she was affiliated with Chi Omega sorority. She is now employed by McCann-Erickson advertising agency in Portland.

Her husband is a student at Portland State college and the newlyweds are residing at 4415 S.W. Kelly street in the Rose city.

Christian Women's Club Meeting Dated Oct. 5 at East Side

Members of Treasure Valley Christian Women's club will meet for their monthly luncheon at 1 p.m. Wednesday, Oct. 5, at East Side cafe in Ontario.

Guest speaker will be Mrs. Marcia Gauss of McCall. She is a dentist's wife and the mother of two children.

A special feature will be a presentation on the art of painting by Mrs. Lucille Marsters of Payette. She will also display some of her own creations. Music will be provided by Mrs. Dee Snoderly.

All women of the area are invited to attend and reservations may be made by dialing 889-8276.

Past Officers Present Flag to OES Chapter

Golden Rule Chapter 131, Order of Eastern Star, held a regular meeting Monday evening, Sept. 19, in the Masonic hall with Worthy Matron Kathleen Wheeler presiding.

During an impressive ceremony, a new United States flag was presented to the chapter by Otillia Boydell and Bill Schireman, past worthy matron and patron.

At the close of the meeting, refreshments were served by Kathleen Wheeler, Roy Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Holmes.

Next meeting will be Oct. 3 when Robert Morris night will be observed.

RETURN TO RICHLAND

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Myrick and Shelley and Mrs. Joan Cruz, who is visiting from Long Island, N.Y., took the women's sister, Mrs. Nick DeJonge and infant son to their home in Richland, Wash., on Sunday. Enroute to the Washington city and as they returned home, the group visited Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Myrick and Vicki at Pendleton.

Nu Acres News

By Mabelle McKague

A regular meeting of the Farmette club was held Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 21, at the home of Mrs. Alden Bryan with Mrs. Verna Shaw and Mrs. Mabelle McKague assisting. Robert Shaw Jr. spoke briefly on purposes the community group hopes to achieve.

The regular business meeting was conducted and Mrs. Thelma Wilson was appointed as one of the representatives for the community group. Refreshments were served by the hostess at the close of the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Jones left Saturday morning, Sept. 17, for a few days' visit at the homes of their children in western Oregon. They returned home last Thursday.

Mrs. V. C. Walker of Parma, who formerly resided in the Nu Acres community, visited Saturday afternoon at the Effie Nielsen, Ralph Baxter and Mike McKague homes.

Mrs. Dalley Reported Ill

Word was received the latter part of last week of the serious illness of Mrs. Lowell Dalley. She had been in Caldwell Memorial hospital for a time and is now home for a week. She will return next week to the hospital for further diagnosis and treatment.

Mrs. Alden Bryan went to Caldwell Saturday when she visited her son, Crawford, who recently suffered severe injuries in a corn cutting machine. He is reported to be improved and has returned to his home from the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Schoenborne of Molalla, Ore., spent Friday at the home of his sister, Mrs. Delbert Wilson. The visitors were returning to Oregon after a trip into Montana.

Eagles Auxiliary Members, Guests Feted at 17th Anniversary Session

Nyssa Eagles auxiliary members observed the local organization's 17th anniversary Sept. 20 when a potluck dinner was served and husbands of members attended as special guests.

During the session which followed, past presidents honored included Ruth Collins, Barbara Jaques, Edna Mills, Elizabeth Peutz, Faye McGinnis and Isal Reece. Among charter members receiving special recognition were Grace Dirksen, Ester Reitenbaugh, Thelma Mefford and Ruth Collins.

State President Visits

Madam State President Goldie Garner of Gresham made an official visit and spoke to the group about her trip to the national convention held in Cleveland, Ohio. Her slogan for the year is "Helping Others to Help Themselves."

Mrs. Garner has selected the Oral Hill Foundation for the Blind as her state project for the year. This is a charitable corporation chartered under the laws of the state of Oregon to promote physical and social well-being of blind persons in the Pacific Northwest through indoor and outdoor rehabilitation.

Other guests at the Tuesday meeting were Anne Packard of Portland and Virginia Attwood of Coeur d'Alene, Idaho.

ATTEND PAYETTE MEETING

Mmes. Kathleen Wheeler, Mae Schireman, Irma Myers, Betty House and Patricia Marcum attended the Sept. 20 friendship meeting of Lorraine Chapter 20, OES, at Payette.

VISITORS FROM IOWA

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Brookhouser of Sioux City, Iowa, visited recently with his sisters, Laura Troy and Ada O'Neill in Nyssa.

state officers in attendance included Rena Caward of Nampa, past state president; Katie Waugh of Nampa, junior past president; Lurana Smith of Boise, state in-side guard.

Others attending were members of the Boise and Nampa units. Door prize was won by Arthrotta Gum of Boise, and Anna VanderOord missed the attendance award.

Hunters' Ball Planned

Social committee members are making plans for the Hunters' Ball to be held Oct. 22 at the aerie hall.

It was announced that Grand Madam President Kay Williamson of Pomona, Calif., will make an official visit to Oregon. The session will be held Oct. 7 at La Grande and local members are invited to attend.

Nyssans planning to go are asked to contact Elaine Olsen by Sept. 30 as reservations must be sent in by that date.

Next meeting of the local unit will be held at 8 p.m. on Oct. 4.

PAULUS JEWELRY
 127 Main Street
 NYSSA . . . OREGON

now '67 CHEVROLET

With an Impala Sport Coupe you can get all the comforts of home, maybe even more.

Everything new that could happen... happened!

New styling that speaks beautifully for itself. More things to add than ever before: A new stereo tape system. Comfortron automatic heating and air conditioning. Front disc brakes. A better Cruise-Master control system. Plus all the power you could want in a car: up to 427 cu. in. available in Chevrolet's exclusive Turbo-Jet V8. And, standard with every new Chevrolet, a new road feel thanks to improved Full Coil suspension. You really should see the new Chevrolets. Very soon.

And all this for your added safety: GM-developed energy-absorbing steering column, dual master cylinder brake system with warning light, energy-absorbing instrument panel, four-way hazard warning flasher, plus many others.

Everything new's happening now... at your Chevrolet dealer's

SWAGER CHEVROLET
 420 Main Street Nyssa, Oregon Phone 372-2224

Now!

U. P. Offers Round Trip Weekend Travel at REDUCED FARES!

Good news for travelers! From September 16 through December 11, 1966, you can take round-trip weekend excursions on Union Pacific at greatly reduced rail fares.

In fact — the fare is so low that the return trip costs you only 10 per cent of the one-way fare!

These fares apply between all points on the Union Pacific except north of Portland, Oregon and south of Las Vegas, Nevada — and apply to both coach and first class on all trains each Friday, Saturday and Sunday with return limit midnight Monday.

For complete information, tickets or reservations, call or visit your nearby Union Pacific Railroad ticket agent.

RE-ELECT ROBERT F. SMITH
"OUR REPRESENTATIVE"
Responsibility and Results

(Political Advertisement Paid for by Clint Bellows, Malheur County Chairman, Robert F. Smith Committee)