Honors at Entrance Given Lynda Cundall At Whitman College

An honors at entrance citation was awarded to Miss Lynda Cundall during the fall convocation service held Sept. 23 at Whitman college in Walla Walla, Wash.

According to information provided by the college, honors at entrance are awarded by west coast collegiate members of the College Entrance Examination board to a limited number of entering freshmen. These honors are given in recognition of outstanding ability in high school and expectation of success in college.

They carry no monetary grants and are awarded without regard to financial need. Selection for the award is based on scholarship, activities, citizenship and college entrance examination board scholastic aptitude test scores.

Miss Cundall was valedictorian of the 1966 NHS graduating class and is a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Joe Cundall.
