Lawn Reception Honors Couple Wed In Temple Ceremony at Idaho Falls

MR. and MRS. BOYD FRELL BLAIR

The Idaho Falls LDS temple was the scene of an Aug. 26, 1966, double-ring wedding ceremony uniting Miss Marilyn Kay Hale and Boyd Frell Blair, with President Alden Poulsen officiating.

Parents of the newlyweds are the Karl Hales of Idaho Falls and the Frell Blairs of Nyssa. A reception was held at the 15th ward Idaho Falls church, decorated in hues of royal blue and rose pink. Guests were greeted in front of a white background of Grecian design, graced with lighted pillars draped with pink netting and bows.

The bride wore an original gown of white peau de soie, fashioned with sheath skirt, fitted bodice and wrist-length lily-point sleeves. The skirt was complimented with a long flowing pleated chapel train.

Her double veil of illusion was held by a crown of pearls, and she carried a cascading bouquet of white French carnations, centered with a cattleya orchid.

Miss Karen Hale, attired in a street-length sheath frock of royal blue crepe, attended her sister as maid of honor.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Anna Lee Nelson, while other attendants were Misses Nancy Wallace, Karen Mickelson and the bridegroom's sister, Sharon Blair, who served as junior maid of honor.

They wore identical sheath dresses of rose-pink crepe, bouffant veils of matching net, secured to chiffon rose petals and carried bouquets of pink carnations and pink velvet streamers.

Dave Walker of Nyssa and Dave Francom of American Fork, Utah, served as the bridegroom's attendants, while ushers were Keith Hale, the bride's brother, and Leon Hale of Salt Lake City.

Mrs. Dena Mae Robbins was at the organ and accompanied Vocalist Mrs. Patsy Holmes of Heber City, Utah.

Among honored guests were the bridegroom's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Rosemond Blair of Lewiston, Utah.

Another social event was a wedding luncheon for the bridal party served at the Hawaiian, with the bridegroom's parents as host and hostess.

Following a honeymoon trip to Yellowstone park and Virginia City, the newlyweds returned to Nyssa where they were honored Assisting the couple in the greeting line and with ushering duties were Sharon Blair and Karen Hale, their sisters; the bridegroom's cousin, Alan Cottle, and Dave Walker.

Among guests present for the Nyssa reception and buffet luncheon were members of the Karl Hale family of Idaho Falls.

The newlyweds are now residing in Apartment 41, 353 East Third North in Provo, Utah, where they have resumed their studies at Brigham Young university.

Jackie M. Baber Weds Vern Bates In Church Rites

Miss Jacqueline Marie Baber became the bride of Vernon Bates during a Sept. 24, 1966, evening ceremony in Calvary Assembly of God church at Nampa.

The bride is a daughter of Former Nyssans Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Baber of Parma. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bates of Nampa.

Before an altar graced with basket arrangements of white carnations and pink gladioli, the Rev. Duane Buhler performed the rites in the presence of 35 guests. Vocalists Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Tish were accompanied by Mrs. Duane Buhler.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a street-length dress of pink satin with chiffon overlay, and she carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Miss Kay Baber, dressed in a frock of blue silk and lace and wearing a corsage of pink carnations, attended her sister as maid of honor.

David Marks was best man, while Clinton Stockdale served as usher.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Baber wore a dress of beige lace; the bridegroom's mother was attired in a purple jersey ensemble and each wore a carnation corsage.

At a reception which followed the ceremony, Miss Bonnie Baber, the bride's sister, registered the guests. In charge of serving were Mrs. Josephine Baber, Mrs. David Marks and Mrs. V. J. Stockdale.

Following a wedding trip to Sun Valley, the newlyweds are now residing at 119 Chestnut street in Nampa.
