THE NYSSA FFA SOIL JUDGING TEAM, comprised of (left to right) Craig Robbins, Dick Cooper, Don and Alan Cleaver, emerged as winner in the Snake River District contest held Oct. 13 at Halfway and sponsored by the Baker Soil Conservation service. The Vale group placed second and Adrian, third. Members of the latter team are Billy Brewer, Stanley Newgen and Burdette Pratt. Other schools competing were Baker, Ontario and Halfway. Each year the Baker Production Credit

association awards a rotating plaque to the winners in individual competition. The contest ended in a tie between Nyssa and Dale Potter of Vale. Both boys' names are engraved on the plaque. The team is eligible to compete in the next contest and will receive funds from the contest to pay expenses to Elsie, site of the contest which is located 40 miles southeast of Salem. —FFA
