Owyhee Community Church to Present Tony Fontane Film

"The Tony Fontane Story," a full-length motion picture in color will be shown at 7:45 p.m. Monday, Dec. 5 at Owyhee Community church.

Wife of Minister Scheduled to Speak At Christian Church

Mrs. Wallace Prowell, wife of the pastor, will be "Women's Day" speaker at the Dec. 4 Christian church morning worship service.

During the past summer and fall, Mrs. Prowell attended the third quadrennial assembly of the International Christian Women's Fellowship at Purdue university in Lafayette, Ind., and also the international convention of Christian churches (Disciples of Christ) in Dallas.

Through knowledge gained at the meetings and as a pastor's wife for over a decade, she hopes to give an inspiring message.

A number of women of the church will be participating in various parts of the worship service.

This service, as every Sunday, is open to the public and everyone is invited to share in worshipping Jesus Christ.
