12 NOON

YES, IT'S TRUE . . . Wally's Dress Shop is going out of business, with the sale starting this Thursday at 12 Noon. The decision to close out completely was not reached lightly because I thoroughly enjoyed the store. But an opportunity came up to travel in Europe and I could not pass up the chance.

Because time is of the essence, I could have sold to bulk buyers. But instead, I have elected to offer my quality merchandise with reductions up to 80 percent as my way of saying "thank you."

If you value your hard-earned dollars, you will be in line when our doors open Thursday at 12 Noon with the greatest sale in Nyssa history. — Sincerely, WALLY DAUDT.
