

Glide, Sutherlin Hoopsters Down Nyssa Lads in Tourney at Phoenix

The Nyssa Bulldogs competed in a Dec. 9-10 basketball tournament at Phoenix, Ore. Other squads participating were those from Glide and Sutherlin. On Friday evening the Bulldogs fell to the Glide Wildcats by a 58-42 final score.

Brad Maxfield led the NHS scorers with 12 points. Other counters were made by Dennis Schilling, 10; Tom Moore, 7; Gary Ross, 6; Mike Kodama, Larry Wilson and Scott Jefferies, 2 points each; Colin Chester, 1. Dennis Webber was top scorer for the winning team with 14 counters.

Antelopes Begin Basketball Play With Two Wins

The Adrian Antelope hoopsters opened their season last week with two wins on their home floor. The Friday evening thriller ended with a 62-60 victory over Homedale, as Ben Conklin tossed in the winning basket just as the buzzer sounded in overtime play.

Conklin was high scoring man for the Antelopes with 32 points. Other counters were made by Tim Holly, 12; Zikmund, 8; Tim Tallman, 7; and Atagi, 3.

Top scoring men for the visiting Trojans were Roland Woodburn and Mike Pearson with 20 points each.

The Antelopes found the going not quite so rough Saturday evening as Tallman, with 20 points; Holly and Conklin, with 12 each, combined their scoring talents to down the Jordan Valley squad by a 70-49 final tally.

Atagi was not far behind with 10 points and others were added by Glaze, Beebe and Kriehg, 4 each; Sloan and Zikmund, 2 apiece.

The Adrian lads have two contests left prior to the holiday season. Friday evening they will meet Homedale on the Idaho court and will host the Burnt River squad Saturday evening. Game time for the varsity contests is 8 o'clock, with the Friday JV game beginning at 6:45 and Saturday competition at 6:30 p.m.

The Bulldogs hit 31 percent of their baskets from the floor with 28 percent from the free-throw line.

In the Saturday night contest, Nyssa fell to Sutherlin high with a final 55-43 tally. Ross was high point man for the evening with 18 counters. He also pulled down 19 rebounds.

Dick Finger scored 8 points with Moore adding 5; Maxfield, 3; Paul House, Schilling, Wilson and Chester, 2 points each; Jefferies, 1.

Sutherlin's high scoring man was Jeff Vermeer with 17 counters. Percentage-wise, Nyssa made 58 from the charity stripe and 20 from the field. After surpassing Nyssa Friday night, Glide went on to overpower the Phoenix Pirates and captured the first place trophy.

For the past three years Phoenix had taken first place honors, but this year finished second to Glide. Sutherlin took the third place trophy.

The NHS hoopsters will travel to Ontario Friday evening and will host the Meridian Warriors Saturday. Varsity games begin at 8 p.m. following the JV contests starting at 6:30. The only other game scheduled prior to the holidays is one on Dec. 20 at John Day.

NHS Bulldog Squad Captures 33-25 Win Over Idaho Matmen

In a dual match meet Friday evening, the Bulldog matmen overpowered the Cambridge squad with a 33-25 final score.

The Nyssa lads began with an early lead by taking four of their first five bouts. Winning by pins were Dan Hiatt, Mike Terry, Dan Marostica, Steve Pecora and Rodney Blaylock. Tim Clarkson received a bye. Frank Rambaud won by decision and the heavy-weight match was forfeited.

The Cambridge squad added to their points by pinning Jerry Wright, Gary Breshears, LaVern Widmer and Don Wilson.

A two-day invitational tourney is scheduled Friday and Saturday on the Capital high mats in Boise and the Nyssa boys will be defending their championship title. Other participating high schools will be Borah, Boise, Caldwell, La Grande, Twin Falls, Mountain home and hosting Capital.

VOLUNTEERS ANSWER CALL TO HOUSTON WILSON HOME

Late Tuesday night the Houston Wilson residence was damaged slightly by fire and smoke. It is reported that the blaze was apparently caused by an overheated light fixture on the ceiling in the family room.

Minor damage was caused to the interior of the room, as firemen were forced to chop a hole in the ceiling. The Wilson home is located at 626 King avenue in Nyssa.
