Farmerettes Set Christmas Party In Bryan Home

By Mabelle McKague
NU ACRES — Regular meeting of the Farmerette club was held Dec. 5 at the home of Mrs. Alden Bryan. Twelve members were present to discuss current business and authorize payment of bills. Plans were then made for a Christmas party to be held Dec. 21 in the Bryan home.

The party will be at 12:30 p.m.; there will be a gift exchange by club members, as well as gifts for small children attending.

Members are asked to take good used clothing for men and women, and used Christmas cards to the Bryan or Burton homes. The items will be taken to the state school in Nampa.

Mr. and Mrs. Alden Bryan were Sunday dinner guests of her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wise at Nyssa. Their son, Billy, had just returned from Vietnam and was an honored guest at the dinner.

Mrs. Fern Gafdnr was timekeeper for an LDS volleyball regional tournament held Saturday in Nyssa. Teams participating were from Pendleton, Ontario, Weiser, Nampa, Meridian and two from Boise.

Attend Wilson Rites

Several from this community attended Dec. 6 funeral services for Eston E. Wilson in Ontario. Mr. Wilson was a brother of Mrs. Verna Shaw and a cousin of George Wilson. He succumbed Dec. 2 at a hospital in Burns.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Allison and grandson, Randy Maxwell of Homedale, visited one day last week in the Ted Allison home. Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Foster of Boise; their son, Phillip; and friend, Kurt Wonacott, were Sunday visitors in the Allison home.

Thanksgiving holiday visitors in the Les Gardner home were their son, Ellis Gardner of Cle Elum, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Warren Gardner and children of Tumwater, Wash., and Mrs. Warren Gardner's mother of Nampa.

Mrs. Les Gardner and daughters spent Nov. 26 at Weiser where they attended the LDS stake volleyball tournament. Mrs. Gardner and Janyce attended the Saturday evening wedding of James and Veda MacTrefethen in Ontario.
