

Monday Open House To Honor Marcums On 35th Anniversary

An open house reception, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Murle Marcum on their 35th wedding anniversary, will be held from 4 to 8 p.m. Monday, Dec. 26, 1966, in their home at 1016 Park avenue in Nyssa.

Hosts and hostesses for the event will be the honorees' children, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Marcum of Nyssa; Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Marcum, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. (Joan) Baronti of Eugene.

Murle Marcum and Beatrice Olson were married Dec. 26, 1931 in Vancouver, Wash., and lived at Klamath Falls until 1938 when they went to Ontario.

For a number of years Marcum was affiliated with the John Deere company and after coming to Nyssa in November of 1942. They were co-owners and operators of Hollingsworth's Hardware and Implement firm.

For approximately 10 years, Marcum has been a pump operator with the North Board of Control, and his wife does upholstery work.

In addition to their children, they have four grandchildren.

Relatives and their family are invited to call at the parental Marcum home Monday afternoon.
