But not for long!

Actually, we're only closed for three days, January 10, 11, and 12. We're going back to school — to attend an intensive agronomic training session conducted by instructors holding doctor's degrees in fertilizer technology and soil fertility. This is how we keep up with the rapid changes occurring in fertilizer management. We're vitally interested in top yields and profit for you and want to continue to provide you with the most complete and modern fertilizer services for the coming year. So we're closing our Farm Service Centers in Nampa, Wilder and Ontario for those three days. We'll see you on January 13 — Better able to serve you. But if you should need us we're as close as the nearest phone. Call us collect — U.S.S. Farm Service Centers, Salt Lake City, (801) 521-4500.
