Girl Scout Leaders Make Future Plans At Recent Meetings

Mrs. Wilton Jackson, neighborhood chairman of the Nyssa Girl Scouts, reports that a leaders' meeting was held Friday morning to make plans for the annual father-daughter banquet to be held in March.

The group is also acquiring sponsors for girls who cannot afford to pay for their own scouting activities. Leaders reported on fall and winter projects.

Mrs. Jackson read minutes of a district 4 meeting held in Homedale where it was decided that each scout would pay 35 cents, price of a cinder block to build camping facilities at Lake Lowell for all scouts to use.

"Wind-o-Willow" has been chosen as name of the new campsites which should be ready for use this summer, Mrs. Jackson said.

Job Corpsmen will provide labor to build the structures, and scouts will furnish building materials.
