Navyman Anderson Trains at San Diego

Seaman Recruit Don H. Anderson is undergoing nine weeks of basic training in San Diego, according to a release from the U. S. Navy.

The young sailor is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Anderson of 602 North Fourth street, Nyssa.

He is receiving instructions in Naval customs, courtesies and organization, ordnance and gunnery, seamanship, damage control, first aid, swimming and survival, shipboard drills and sentry duty.

A program of physical fitness, military drill and inspections keeps the recruits mentally and physically alert during training.

PROJECT WITH WHITE RATS SCHEDULED BY KOOL-KATTS

The Jan. 20 meeting of the Kool-Katts 4-H club was held in Mrs. Jan Wilson's sixth grade classroom and the session was called to order by President Ron Bone.

Leading the flag pledge was Mardi Cole, vice president, with Nancy Looney and Patricia Wahler leading the group in singing "My Oregon" and "God Bless America."

Prior to adjournment, the group voted to experiment with two white rats by feeding them proper and improper foods.
