Lady Golfers Play In Spring Tourney

Members of the Ontario Women's Golf association went into their third week of team play on April 18 with Maudie Voeller's team in first place.

Members of the Thursday afternoon bridge club met last week at the home of Mrs. Tom Eldredge. Prize winners were Mrs. Bill Barton and Mrs. Dick Forbess.

Evelyn Newman's and Helen Hammer's squads tied for second place and Liz Stringer's team in third spot.

President Maxie Sugai appointed Connie Jones to serve as chairman for the Betty Jenkins memorial tournament and Bodell Patterson as representative from the association to work with the junior organization.

On April 11, low gross on the back nine was scored by Claudia Taylor and low gross on the front nine by Bodell Patterson; low new on the back nine, Maxie Sugai and low net on the front, Lois Johnson.

The spring handicap tournament started this week and eighteen holes were played both Tuesday and Wednesday.

The April 25 luncheon was served by Petra McCeary, Mary Moore, Sina Conner and Claire Ackerman.

Bulldogs Speed Past Knights In Diamond Play

The Nyssa Bulldogs went into action last Thursday when they ran past the Bishop Kelly Knights with a 4-3 score.

Top playing men of the afternoon were Jim Anderson, Paul House and Steve Pecora.

In the bottom of the seventh inning the score stood 3-1, with the Bulldogs tying it up 3-3 on a walk, singles by Brian Cleaver and Anderson, a double to left-center field by Pecora.

Nyssa's winning run came in the bottom of the eighth inning with Kodama's walk and stolen base, and House's double to right field.

In the sixth inning Kelly scored its three runs on an error, a single, a double and a two-run passed ball.

Anderson and Cleaver tallied two hits to record their second win against three losses. Bishop Kelly now stands 3-2 in league play.
