

'Book Of Music' Ceremony Installs Jobie Officers

Jane Timmerman ... Honored Queen

Miss Jane Timmerman was installed as Honored Queen of Bethel 33, International Order of Job's Daughters, during a ceremony conducted Sunday afternoon, June 4, 1967 in the Eagles hall.

Lighting the tapers for the "Book of Music" rites were the Misses Teresa Toppliff, Lois Seuell and Nancy Nelson. Guests were registered by Carylee Mefford and Jeanette Phifer was in charge of flowers. Nancy Boydell presented the flag in the Bethel room and Diane Jennings carried the Bible.

Prior to the installation ceremony, members marched into the Bethel room and formed a cross as the "Book of Music" was narrated by Mrs. Dorothy Tyson. As the girls knelt in prayer, Mrs. Alice Nishitani sang "You'll Never Walk Alone."

Teresa Hamilton Fritz served as installing honored queen. She was assisted by Sheila Huffman, guide; Kathy Edgeman, marshal; Patricia Marcum, chaplain; Lynda Cundall, musician; Barbara Mefford, senior custodian; Joy Trunell, junior custodian and Bonnie Sappe, recorder. Other officers installed for the ensuing six-month term are: Christy Nelson, senior princess; Joann Timmerman, junior princess; Kathy Nelson, guide; Joyce Jennings, marshal; Jill Franklin, chaplain; G. G. Holly, musician; Cindy Tracy, treasurer; Jackie Franklin, recorder.

Sharlene Kido, librarian; Linda Sykes, inner guard; Cille Tracy, outer guard; Alicia Huffman, senior custodian; Susan Kouns, junior custodian. Messengers are Marilee Wilson, first; Pam Hamilton, second; Linda Root, third; Laura Mackey, fourth and Judi Steiner, fifth. Ladies of the lights are Pam McPartland and Lisa Sykes.

Assisting with installing the honored queen were members of Gem chapter, Order of DeMolay, from Homedale.

Earnie Lewis sang "The Lord's Prayer" as the new honored queen knelt at the altar following the crowning ceremony. The vocalist was accompanied on the piano by Mary Lou Denman.

In addition to Guardians Ray and Thelma Huffman, those escorted and introduced were Dorothy Tyson, past grand guardian to the state of Idaho and past guardian of Bethel 27, Parma; Kay Wheeler, worthy matron of Golden Rule Chapter, 131, O.E.S.; Roy Gano of Homedale, DeMolay adviser; Kathy Edgeman of Parma and Sheila Huffman, grandrepresentatives to Labrador and the state of Florida, respectively. All past honored queens were also escorted and introduced.

Miss Timmerman received the honored queen's pin from Teresa Fritz, was presented a gavel by members of her immediate family, and was given a gift by Mrs. Wheeler on behalf of the Eastern Star chapter. Mrs. Fritz was recipient of a past honored queen's pin.

A reception was held immediately following the close of the installation ceremony. Entertainment included a dance number presented by G. G. Holly and Evelyn Tallman.
